Emily Beisel & Ivory On Fire Dominate Cinch Playoffs Governor's Cup

By Tanya Randall

Weatherford, Oklahoma's Emily Beisel will head to her fifth National Finals Rodeo this December, sitting third in the WPRA World Standings after a stellar showing at the Cinch Playoffs The Governor's Cup, held September 28-30 in the Denny Sanford Center at Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

Beisel and her rising star Ivory On Fire ("Liza") won on every run they made down the alley, save the first which they split with World No. 1 Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and SR Industry Titan. Their domination of the $122,222 rodeo gave them their largest win to date, a $43,750 championship.

"What a week! It's such a fairy tale," said Beisel. "I think part of the reason it went so well is I went up there hoping to give my horse a good experience, good exposure, to see where we were at and if she was ready for Vegas if I needed her."

Bred by Vickie Adams, Liza, a 7-year-old mare is by Ivory James out of Lil Miss Firewater, by Fire Water Flit. Lil Miss Firewater is a full sister to the late leading barrel horse sire Chasin Firewater. Liza was purchased by Beisel's longtime friend Shelby Ridling as a yearling.

Although Beisel rides with Ridling often, Liza wasn't really "on her radar." For one, she's not really a fan of mares, and two, she's not a fan of going left. Plus, she'd ridden Liza once before and it

BIT: Carolina Bit with mullen mouth and offset curb

SADDLE: Master

SADDLE PAD: Schneider Performance Pad

LEG GEAR: Ortho Equine on all four

HAY: Alfalfa and grass

SUPPLEMENTS: Vitalize Alimend and Steirwalt Superflex

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: FlexiNeb daily on the road in the summer; Acuscope therapy a couple of times

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIME: "She used to be the pony horse and I ponied the other horses off of her. Lately, she's graduated to the one that gets ponied. I keep it really slow with her. Even last week, I just ponied her. I took her to Amarillo, and she did great. I felt that was as good of preparation as I could give her before Sioux Falls. We're finally to that point of keeping her exercised and legged up. She's a little spitfire so I have to get her out every day."

SPONSORS: Master Saddles, Schneider Performance Pads, Cinch Jeans, Vitalize Equine, Purina Performance Horse, Hyer Boots, RPX Enterprises, Ortho Equine, Nutrien Ag Solutions, Namgis Quarter Horses, Steirwalt Superflex, Signature Quarters, 12 Gauge Ranch, American Ag Credit

"Liza might have been 3 or 4 and Shelby threw me on her," Beisel recalled. "She wanted to see her go. She said, 'Would you just cruise her through; I want to see what she's doing.' I did a terrible job! I felt like I untrained the horse in one pass!"

Ridling had injured her knee, so Liza missed out on much of her futurity year. So, when she got pregnant with her second child, she asked Beisel if she would run the mare at Ruby Buckle and a few other events she had entered.

"I asked her if she was sure she wanted me to ride her," chuckled Beisel. "Last time, it didn't go very well, and this isn't something that I normally do."

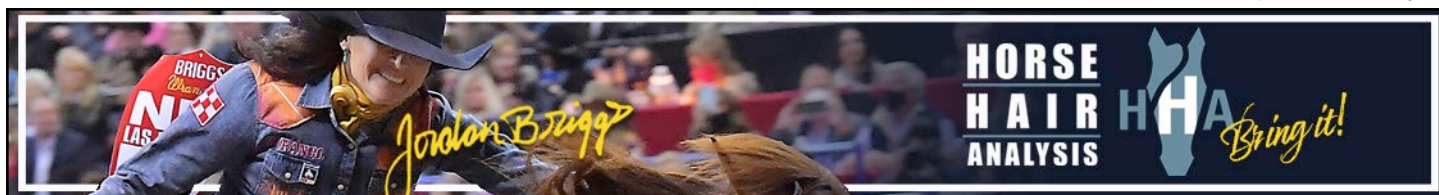

To ease Beisel's concerns, the two drove three hours to a jackpot at the NRS Arena in Decatur, Texas. A tipped barrel kept Beisel and Liza from placing third in the 1D.

"When I rode her, I was like 'Wow!'" Beisel said. "When I rode Chongo (Namgis D 33), I felt that difference that a great horse has. There's just something about them. You feel that greatness in them. I felt that with Liza, which surprised me. I wasn't expecting that. I've never been really attracted to that mare, but when you feel it... when you ride a horse and you feel that, that changes things." With pregnancy hormones running rampant, Ridling tearfully told Beisel that she wanted her to have the mare because she thought she would do her justice and give her a chance on a bigger stage. They spent the three hour trip home devising a plan that would allow Beisel to buy Liza.

Unfortunately, their success wasn't instantaneous.

"A lot of people want to get a new horse and start going right away,” lamented Beisel, “and that just wasn’t in the cards for us. It wasn’t anyone’s fault. It was just life.”

First of all, Liza was different from her geldings, who were all trained at the Youree-Ward Ranch.

“Since 2015, that’s pretty much what I’ve been on,” noted Beisel.

Liza was also a little green as far as competition, and when Beisel would have the opportunity to ride and run her she was often injured, from spider bites to severe abscesses.

“That mare has the worst luck in the world as far as random stuff happening to her,” Beisel said. It has been one thing after another with this mare. No fault of her own. It’s not something that she’s done being silly. It’s been a series of unfortunate events that have kept her from some consistent hauling and kept her from getting some exposure and the confidence that I needed with her to compete at that level.

“Fortunately, where I have Pipewrench, Chongo and Beau, I never really needed her. So, I never had to put that horse in a situation that she wasn’t ready for because I was covered. We’ve never had pressure. We’ve been able to come along at our pace and learn and grow together. When I felt like it was right, I took her.”

Beisel ran Liza at one rodeo in 2022 and realized that she needed to focus more on jackpots for the time being. This year, her plan was to focus on the incentive aged events with Liza and run her the rodeos when she felt she was ready.

“I’ve got young horses coming up and I wanted to see what it’s all about,” she explained. “It was nice to have a chance to take her and get a feel for things.”

Beisel also selectively added rodeos throughout the year. Liza placed at a few pro rodeos throughout the spring but missed the mid-summer rodeos.

“I took her to Calgary with me, but she got really sick,” she said. “She started coughing. I think she’s got some allergies. That’s still a hurdle that I’ve got to figure out with her.”

Liza stayed home until late August when Beisel headed back to the Northwest for the first rodeo in the Cinch Playoffs—the Washington State Fair in Puyallup. Beisel said she thought Puyallup would be a good place to run Liza, plus it didn’t suit any of her geldings.

“Chongo hated Puyallup last year,” she chuckled. “He went through the motions, but it just wasn’t his jam. I’ve rodeoed on my boys for so many seasons, I know where they just don’t love a setup. Puyallup is one of those places. It was easy for me to step off the horses I’ve had success on because I knew they didn’t love that setup.” At Puyallup, Liza carried Beisel to a second-place finish and bumped her off the NFR bubble. Later, she got her first pro rodeo win in Amarillo, Texas, as a warmup for Sioux Falls.

“I’m tickled with how she performed out there,” said Beisel. While many have asked her if Liza is likely her main NFR mount this year, Beisel said she’ll know closer to Vegas, but it will in all likelihood be Chongo.

“Chongo’s been to four NFRs,” she said. “He’s a seasoned veteran. It’s always exciting—the new shiny toy that Liza is—but I want her to have a long career. She’s just 7. Yeah, she stepped up and showed out, and we're tickled with that, but I still look at it long term. I don't want to put that kind of pressure on her and I right now."

Beisel plans on having all her horses ready for Vegas, including Liza.

"We're just one day at a time, one run at a time," she said. "I try not to get the cart in front of the horse."

Beisel is grateful for the support of her family, including her husband Austin and her parents. She wanted to thank her fellow NFR qualifier Summer Kosel, and her daughter Hope, for looking after Liza while she talked to the media after her runs. She especially wanted to thank Ridling, whom she called the best kept secret in western Oklahoma.

"Shelby has been Team Emily and Liza from day one," said Beisel, who noted Ridling also trained Chewingthehotwire that helped Sissy Winn to her first NFR in 2022. "She believed in the horse and kept telling me that I was going to get it. Having a friend like that who was so confident and so supportive was instrumental in getting me to this point.

"(Liza) was so different from what I was used to, and I think that's why it took me so long to figure her out, but great horses are worth waiting on."

2023 National Finals Rodeo Field Finalized

The WPRA's Top 15 was solidified at the Cinch Playoffs The Governor's Cup, held September 28-30 in Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

With its $122,222 purse, The Governor's Cup had huge potential to shake up the WPRA World Standings. However, after the initial two rounds, where 15th-ranked Paige Jones out advanced her two biggest challengers—Kelly Allen and Ashley Castleberry—the field was set.

Jones, Wayne, Okla., is one of four first-time NFR qualifiers. The 2020 WPRA Rookie of the Year will be joined by Taycie Matthews of Wynne, Arkansas, Summer Kosel of Glenham, South Dakota, and Ilyssa Riley of Hico, Texas.

Matthews, the 2023 Collegiate Champion Barrel Racer, is the highest ranked at fourth with $145,439 won after attending 79 rodeos. Riley, the 2022 Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion, hit 80 rodeos and earned $111,473 to sit 10th.

Jones and Kosel didn't reach the 60 rodeo mark with 57 and 58, respectively. Jones, who sits 15th with $102,968, largely won on the back of Famous Hayday. Kosel relied solely on Firewaterfrench-fame for her $115,682 to sit 9th in the standings.

Two-time World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi leads the field with $270,563 after dominating some of the most lucrative rodeos of the summer including the Reno Rodeo, Calgary Stampede, Days of '47, Dodge City, Ellensburg, Caldwell, and the Puyallup Playoffs. She broke Tiany Schuster's 2017 record of $250,378. Tonozzi heads into the NFR with the largest lead since the $74,000 edge Mary Burger carried into her 2016 World title.

2021 WPRA World Champion Jordon Briggs of Tolar, Texas, is second with $160,824 after entering just 30 rodeos. This will be her third consecutive (2021-2023) and fourth overall (2009) trip to Las Vegas.

Governor's Cup Champion Emily Beisel of Weatherford, Oklahoma, is headed to her fifth straight NFR (2019-2023). She is third in the World Standings with $158,752 after entering 85 rodeos.

Two-time NFR Champion Lisa Lockhart will compete in her 17th straight NFRs (2007-2023). Only legendary WPRA World Champion Charmayne James has more consecutive qualifications with 19. Four-time WPRA World Champion Sherry Cervi also has 19 qualifications, but they're nonconsecutive. Lockhart, Oelrichs, South Dakota, won $134,591 after entering 54 rodeos.

Kassie Mowry, barrel racing's all-time leading money earner, qualified for her second consecutive NFR after winning $133,802 to sit sixth. The leading futurity trainer from Dublin, Texas, qualified in the fewest rodeos of the Top 15, just three more than the 25 rodeo minimum. This will be her fourth appearance having qualified in 2005 and 2017 as well.

Wenda Johnson, Pawhuska, Oklahoma, is headed to her fourth straight NFR (2020-2023). The nurse practitioner and mother of two won $120,506 after entering 57 rodeos. Johnson relied heavily on Steal Money, owned by High Point Performance Horses, after the loss of his stablemate Macgyver Moonflash during the season.

NFR Open Champion Jessica Routier and her great mare Fiery Miss West ("Missy") are headed to their sixth straight NFR (2018-2023). Missy, owned and bred by Gary Westergren, won all but $1,100 of her $117,695 from the 54 rodeos she entered.

Sissy Winn of Chapman Ranch, Texas, heads to her second straight NFR. Winn won $109,022 after entering 72 rodeos.

Late season heroics, highlighted by wins at Strathmore, Alberta, and Pendleton, Oregon, earned Stevi Hillman her eighth straight (2016-2023) NFR qualification. The Granbury, Texas, barrel racer sits 12th with $109,015 from 80 rodeos entered.

Four-time and defending WPRA World Champion Hailey Kinsel of Cotulla, Texas, is headed to her seventh straight NFR (2017-2023). She entered 60 rodeos and won $105,776 with her great mare DM Sissy Hayday placing at 17 out of 20 to sit 13th in the standings.

Cheyenne Frontier Days and Snake River Stampede Champion Sue Smith rode her mother-son duo of Dashes Centerfold and Diamond Center to her third (2009, 2011 and 2023) NFR qualification. The veteran trainer from Blackfoot, Idaho, is 14th after earning $102,968.

Although earnings are still unofficial, it's the first time in WPRA history that it took more than $100,000 to qualify for the NFR. The previous cutoff record was Lacinda Rose's $88,936 in 2019.

Kalli McCall Named 2023 WPRA Resistol Rookie

By Tanya Randall

Lufkin, Texas, barrel racer Kalli McCall earned $37,409 in her first year as a WPRA Cardholder to win the Resistol Rookie of the Year title.

“That was the end goal,” said McCall, a 20-year-old student at Hill College in Hillsboro, Texas. “I wanted to win Rookie of the Year and make the NFR. I accomplished one of those goals.”

McCall finished 45th in the WPRA World Standings with $33,753 in a record-breaking year that saw $100,000 needed to make the National Finals Rodeo. Earnings from McCall’s championship at the Resistol Rookie Roundup, at the end of April, did not count toward World Standings.

In addition to the Rookie Roundup victory, McCall also finished well at Denver, Colorado, Strathmore, Alberta, and Langley, British Columbia.

Her year was filled with tribulations as she had to send her good horse and later her backups home and finish the year with a new mount. Dr Nicks Cash (“Mohawk”), her 16-year-old gelding, by Cash For Injun, out of Flamingo Flit Bar, by Dr Nick Bar, had to go home right after the Reno Rodeo. It was a heavy blow as the gelding had been her main horse since he was just a 5-year-old.

“I had him out there with a backup and my young horse, and I only got to run him at Reno,” McCall explained. “I ended up sending my backup home; I really didn’t get to run her at all. I was down to my young horse.”

She tried running her young horse, Sangriaontherocks, at Ponoka, Alberta, but it was too much to ask of the 5-year-old. While in Canada she picked up Moons Dyna, a 14-year-old mare, by Moons Handsome Bug, out of Red Hot Gem, by Red Hot Lena, to finish out the year.

“We got very, very lucky with her,” she said.

Outside of the arena was even rougher when she had truck and trailer trouble her first week on the road for the summer.

“I was literally stranded in Reno for about two weeks with no truck and no trailer,” she said. “They were both in the shop. They couldn’t get the parts, couldn’t get anything fixed. It was a disaster. While my trailer was in the shop, it got broken into and they stole everything out of my living quarters!”

Thankfully, McCall had a lot of help from her boyfriend, calf roper Kincaid Henry, a two-time NFR qualifier. She also had help from Henry’s sister Keely, who helped her drive, and the support of her parents Kelby and Mindy. She also wanted to thank her veterinarian Dr. Cameron Stoudt, her farrier Vern Kaylor, Cody Hamilton with Hamilton Equine, her mentor Robyn Herring and her newest sponsor Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals.

McCall has Rosenberg and Hempstead, Texas, this weekend.

2023 ROOKIE STANDINGS

Standings as of 10/3/23 - courtesy of www.wpra.com*

1 Kalli McCall	$37,409	11 Sage Kohr	$10,160
2 Rainey Skelton	$29,990	12 Quincy Sullivan	$7,920
3 Victoria Procter	$23,020	13 Kaycee Killingsworth	$7,785
4 Grace Gardiner	$21,505	14 Maren Powers	$7,731
5 Karli Cowie	$18,866	15 Rachel Werkman	$7,190
6 Sophie Nolen	$16,616	16 Makala Pierce	$7,101
7 Miley Bravos	$14,330	17 Lucy Ferch	$7,085
8 Julia Johnson	$12,306	18 Tasia Behnke	$6,361
9 Acey Pinkston	$10,807	19 Lacy Diefenbach	$5,940
10 Katie Sowada	$10,753	20 Jetti Lorenz	$5,839

Both rodeos are qualifiers for Rodeo Houston.

“It feels like I didn’t get much of a break,” said McCall, who is also studying for her real estate license. “I didn’t win quite enough to get into those big winter rodeos, so I’m going to try and go get enough money won to get in on this year’s world standings.”

McCall said the best lesson she learned was to keep going.

“You definitely have to keep rolling with it,” she said. “Not everything is going to go as planned. You just have to keep going and pushing through it. That’s something I had to learn that I didn’t do before.”

“There were lots of ups and downs, and craziness. I had to remember why I did this because I enjoy it and love it and it’s fun. That’s what I focused on to take all the pressure off, just go and enjoy it because I enjoy barrel racing.”

Congratulations!

Inaugural Texarkana Showdown Slot Races Awards $443,467, Kassie Mowry Wins $90,426

By Tanya Randall

The barrel racing industry's all-time leading rider Kassie Mowry continued her winning ways at the inaugural running of the Texarkana Showdown, held September 28-30 in Arkansas. The Showdown featured three slot races—futures, derby and open—as well as an Open 4D.

Mowry, Dublin, Texas, hit the jackpot with her four personal horses winning $90,426. Her top three horses ran with .035 of each other.

Her big winner was the 5-year-old Karma Loftin-bred gelding KL Touch Of Heaven (JL Dash Ta Heaven x Junior Country Girl x Deep Note Jr) with a time of 14.147. "Dove" won the $105,120 Bullseye Bullion Derby and his carryover time finished second in the $235,440 Black Star Ranch High Stakes Open for $30,903.

Mowry's 2022 Calgary Stampede Champion Famous Ladies Man (Dash Ta Fame x Lady Perks x Dash For Perks) clocked a 14.167 to take second in the Derby. The 8-year-old Busby Quarter Horses-bred gelding's time carryover for third in the High Stakes for $25,479.

Her 17-hand giant CP He Will Be Epic (Epic Leader x Percilla x Dash Ta Fame) was right behind Dove and "Emmitt" with a 14.182. The 8-year-old Claire Powell-bred gelding was third in the Derby and fourth in the High Stakes for $21,233.

Rounding out Mowry's quartet was her 5-year-old gelding Force The Goodbye (The Goodbye Lane x VF Forcitt First x Burrs First Down) with a 14.651. The Janelle Blubaugh-bred gelding won the Derby's 2D and placed 10th in the High Stakes 2D for $11,655. Mowry loved the Showdown format as she made all her runs on Thursday, and she was back riding colts Friday morning.

"Where else can you win $90K in one day!" she said. "I was home Friday morning, working on my 3-year-olds so I can come back!"

The great showing was a little bittersweet as it marked the last aged event competitions for her great horses Emmitt and Will, both of which were top futurity horses in 2019, and at 8, made their last derby runs.

"It was very special to me because it was the last derby Will and Emmitt will ever get to go to," she said. "I was thrilled they got to finish their aged event careers as strong as they went in."

When Cotulla, Texas, barrel racer London Gorham finished fifth in the Derby, earning $5,667 on her 14.213, she knew her great horse Runnin With Wings ("Homeboy") could be faster so opted to make a second run for the High Stakes on Friday rather than carryover her time.

The decision was worth a $22,367 High Stakes victory on a run of 14.114.

"I cannot explain how important that horse is to me," said Gorham of the 7-year-old Jud Little-bred JL Dash Ta Heaven gelding, out of Nicki Nick Bar, by Colonel Azucar. "He has so much try. He's so honest. He just has the heart of a winner."

All totaled Gorham and Homeboy won $29,393 on the weekend. Skyla Peters of Sublette, Kansas, topped the $92,907 A Dash Ta Streak Futurity with VF Rock Em Stinson ("Sterling"), owned by Art Gutterson and Storme Camarillo of Greeley, Colorado. Peters and the 5-year-old gelding turned in a 14.303 to win $11,702.

"It's amazing to have an open race—a high stakes race—that it doesn't matter who your horse is by, you can go run for a bunch of money," said Peters, who also ran in the Derby with her own horse Pistol Whistle.

Peters starting riding Sterling a month ago and only had five runs with the Eddie Stinson gelding, out of the Rock Em Smooth mare Beduinos Chick Jet, before Texarkana.

"I don't ride outside horses," she said, "but they called and asked if I wanted another horse to haul and I said 'Yeah!'"

She said the fit was better than with her own horse.

"He is my style," said Peters, who wanted to thank Gutterson and Camarillo for the ride. "The first run I made on him was a Vernon, Texas, and he got second in the 1D. He's honest. He's not a barrel hitter. He's just easy."

Peters had sold out of horses in January 2022 to focus on building a business with her husband Billy.

"My husband and I both sold out of everything," she said. "Four months later I was missing it, so in May I bought a saddle and another horse. We just got a living quarters last week. I rodeoed all summer with a bumper pull. I didn't care because it was just nice to be able to have a horse again. People would be amazed at what a break does for you. It makes you sit back and be a lot more thankful and grateful to be able to do this sport."

As of Monday, it looks like Peters will be able to enjoy the sport a little longer with Sterling as his owners decided to pull him from this week's Pink Buckle sale.

The Cowboy Channel's "100 Rodeos in 100 Days Pre-Show" wins prestigious award

The Cowboy Channel's "100 Rodeos in 100 Days Pre-Show" won the award for Best Sports Programming at the 2023 Synopsis Best of the Best Awards on Sept. 27. The other two finalists were Netflix and CBS.

The Synopsis Best of the Best & Rising Star Awards salute excellence in national TV programming, marketing campaigns, people, tech, and more. The awards recognize outstanding achievement across platforms and overall merit in social good, social justice, kids programming, and work-from-home initiatives for campaigns running in full or in part between November 2022 and June 2023.

The winners were announced during a ceremony held at the Edison Ballroom in New York City during the Synopsis Big TV Conference. Justin McKee accepted the award on behalf of the entire "100 Rodeos in 100 Days" broadcast and production team. Also present were Jeff Medders, Amy Wilson, Katy Lucas, Karlee Peterson, Garrett Wilson, Maggie Burke, and Patrick Gottsch.

"When we first started The Cowboy Channel, we wanted to do things for professional rodeo that these other great sports networks were doing for their respective sports," said Gottsch, founder of The Cowboy Channel. "To be recognized for the 100 Rodeos in 100 Days Pre-Show confirms that we are on the right track, and we greatly appreciate this award."

"We could not have done this without the support The Cowboy Channel receives from all of these rodeo committees across the country," McKee said. "Big, medium size, and small rodeos all rolled out the red carpet and helped us produce the best possible broadcast from their respective communities."

Stetson Wright breaks all-around, bull riding PRCA regular season earnings records

Stetson Wright is a man on a mission in 2023 and no record will get in his way of accomplishing his ultimate goal of winning three gold buckles and $1.2 million by season's end.

A year ago, he set the PRCA record in the all-around and bull riding for the most money won in a single regular season before the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. He couldn't help but one-up himself this year.

With less than a week remaining in the regular season – it ends Sept. 30 – Wright has already blown past those totals from 2022. As of Sept. 19, he has earned $403,913 in the all-around and $324,128 in bull riding. He said while the standings reflect a huge season, it didn't feel that way until recently.

"The money earned in the standings doesn't reflect on how slow the year felt like it was going for me until literally these last 19 days," said Wright, a seven-time PRCA World Champion. "It felt like everything was moving slow, but finally when I was able to get on everyday that's when it started really clicking again."

In the first 19 days of September, Wright won a total of four rodeos between saddle bronc riding and bull riding, pocketing $129,839 in the process. With the season winding down, his goal of winning a rare rodeo triple crown is in sight. He currently leads the PRCA | RAM World Standings in the all-around, saddle bronc riding, and bull riding.

"My main goal every year is to win the triple crown. I set the money records in hopes that if I completely dominate those that I'll dang for sure have those gold buckles at the end of the year," Wright said.

"When I don't win all three honestly, it's a letdown. I'm still happy obviously with winning, but in the back of my mind there's still that feeling that you didn't get that done. That eats at me and that's why I'm constantly striving to get the triple crown."

Wright's six years in ProRodeo have been nothing short of astonishing, as he creeps closer toward the $3 million career earnings mark. It makes you wonder what the now 24-year-old still has left to accomplish in the sport. According to him, this is only the beginning.

"I keep telling myself that people don't hit their prime until their 30s, so I should be getting better every single year. I feel like at times I set unrealistic goals, but then by the end of the year it was actually realistic, and I need to go even higher," he said. "It's one of those things that I expect of myself, but at the same time I see how blessed I am to be

Rodeo Corpus Christi & WCRA Announce $600,000 Payout --Rodeo Corpus Christi returns for CBS Network Broadcast in 2024--

Rodeo Corpus Christi and WCRA have recently announced the increased payout to over $600,000 in prize money for the 2024 WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo Event. The May 7-11 lineup of events will also now include the CEAT Specialty Tires Division Youth Showcase Rodeo. Rodeo Corpus Christi coincides with the annual Buc Days Festival and the PBR Velocity Tour Finals at the American Bank Center on the picturesque Corpus Christi Bayfront.

"In four years, Rodeo Corpus Christi and WCRA have collaborated to boost the total added money awarded to athletes at this rodeo by more than 300%," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "Including the CEAT DY Showcase Rodeo will strengthen Rodeo Corpus Christi and WCRA's dedication to promoting and benefiting Texas Youth. This rodeo is a highly sought-after destination market, boasting exceptional facilities, top-notch concerts, and family-friendly entertainment."

The Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR) is a series of major rodeo events that includes an annual bonus that will pay $1 million to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win first place in any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos. WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo events are featured yearly in CBS network television broadcasts.

In 2022, RC Landingham, a Bareback Rider hailing from Hat Creek, California, made history by winning the $1 Million Triple Crown of Rodeo, becoming the first athlete to achieve this feat. Currently, Issac Diaz (Desdemona, Texas), a Saddle Bronc Rider is emulating Landingham's success by securing two consecutive championships. Diaz is now setting his sights on clinching his third victory at WCRA's Rodeo Carolina in early October.

In addition to the $545,500 Triple Crown of Rodeo, a purse of over $55,000 will be awarded to WCRA Division Youth (DY) athletes at the inaugural Rodeo Corpus Christi CEAT Specialty Tires DY Showcase Rodeo Presented by King Ranch. This youth rodeo showcase will take place in a special Tuesday night performance in the American Bank Center, followed by a live concert.

According to Mote, the DY Showcase is a remarkable and fiercely competitive platform that provides young rodeo athletes with a unique opportunity to exhibit their skills. This groundbreaking initiative in rodeo extends valuable support to aspiring athletes from various parts of the nation.

The WCRA also announced a modification to the 2024 event format. The Timed Event Qualifying rounds will be substituted with a Wild Card Round. Rodeo Corpus Christi will commence the nightly performances on Wednesday with the "Wild Card" round of competition. During this round, 12 athletes in each discipline will compete for just four spots in the rodeo's upcoming performances on Thursday and Friday. If these athletes succeed in progressing, they will join the top eight on the WCRA Leaderboard for the subsequent two performances.

In the final performance on Saturday night, Rodeo Corpus Christi fans can expect the top seven athletes to compete in the Showdown Round. Each discipline's top three performers will return for the coveted Triple Crown of Rodeo Round.

VRQ Nominations for Rodeo Corpus Christi will open on October 2 and close April 7, 2024. Format and competition information is available at wcrarodeo.com.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I marvel at the differences in Mike and I. And after being married for as long as we have, it gets funnier all the time!

Just this morning, Mike said something that surprised me! He gets up really early, about 4:30, and goes next door to his office to pray. Well, I got up early with him because we have a very full week ahead.

When I get up, the second thing I do is look out the window to see what's happening! Sun, wind, rain, snow. Get an idea of what I'm up against for the day. I looked out and the fog was so thick I could hardly see the building next to us. I commented on it to Mike and he said, "I never look out the window." WHAT? Everyone looks out the window! Seriously, how will he know when Jesus is coming if he doesn't look out the window????

Okay, that's not exactly how we'll be able to tell. The Bible says that the Holy Spirit will show us things to come. John 16:13. Well, we best be listening then. We better keep our focus on Him. Jesus Himself said in Luke 2:49 that He had to be about His Fathers' business. If Jesus needed to, we need to!

Ask Him just what He wants you to do. . . .and then do it!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
