Our Wine List

At Capeesh? we do things the true, Italian way. Since Italy is one of the largest wine consuming countries in the world, our own passion for good wine and great food is clearly reflected in this special selection of wines.

Pairing Flavours

Wine and food pairing is about combining particular dishes with specific wines to enhance all the flavours of your meal. The reason why food and wine pairing should be kept in mind when dining, is that elements in both the food and the wine react with each other in a certain way. By finding a balanced combination of elements, your overall dining experience is enhanced. Here are a few guidelines to which kinds of wines pair well with certain dishes on our menu, however taste is a subjective experience. That's why a "perfect pairing" for one person could be less enjoyable for someone else.
