We'll be waiting!

BOONE COUNTY is an amazing place. It contains some of the richest soil in the world and its farmers regularly produce more food per acre than anywhere else. At the same time, a deep valley cuts through its middle, leaving to its east and west a wide swath of natural beauty, flora, and fauna that exists in a level of diversity found nowhere else in the state. Many people flock to our county to enjoy a peaceful float down the river, or a scenic bike ride across the High Trestle Trail Bridge. Others come for a memorable trip on the Boone and Scenic Valley Railroad. Still, others to camp, fish, hike or walk through our amazing (there's that word again!) collection of historical museums. Along the way, they enjoy a wide array of homegrown restaurants and unique local shopping. We hope you'll make us a part of your next trip. We think you'll agree that Boone County is an amazing place!

Gateway to the trestle.

Madrid!

MADRID (pronounced (MAD-rid) is an energetic, growing community in the southeast corner of Boone County. The continued development of the High Trestle Trail, which cuts through its center along the downtown's south side, attracts tens of thousands of people each year. This 25-mile trail has received international recognition for its centerpiece, the High Trestle Trail Bridge, which sits just over two miles to Madrid's west and at 130' high, spans the valley at one-half mile long! Dalander Park is a favorite spot to park, offload the bikes and head down the trail in either direction. Plenty of food and beverages are available from many local establishments situated a stone's throw from the trail. Didn't bring a bike? Don't worry, they've got bike rentals covered too! Madrid Labor Day Celebration runs from Friday-Monday Labor Day Weekend and the Christmas Extravaganza is the first Saturday of December.

Where to find the High Trestle Trail

The paved recreational trail opened April 30, 2011, and has had countless pedestrians bask in the beauty that is the thirteen-story bridge that overlooks the Des Moines River Valley. The 25-mile trail goes from Ankeny to the south, through the cities of Slater & Madrid before ending in Woodward, Iowa to the west. The focal point to the High Trestle Trail is the bridge itself which features cribbing on the deck directly above the water that is lined with Blue LED lights. This serves to illuminate the deck as well as mirror the water flowing below. The lights are made to be turned on and off for events and minimize disruption to the wildlife in the valley. From April 1 until October 31, the bridge lights are on from sunset to 12:00 a.m., then during the winter months from approximately November 1 through March 31 from sunset until 9:00 p.m. The elevated columns supporting the bridge are all gently down-lit to cast an aura of light onto the valley floor. Entering into the bridge, two 36 feet tall monoliths stand on either side that form an enormous V. More than 16,000 custom-glazed ceramic tiles were created in the RDG Art Studio and made specifically to look like coal. These tiles were placed onto the monoliths to represent the veins of coal running through the region. The High Trestle Trail Bridge has been named the best bike accessible bridge in Iowa by the Iowa Bicycle Coalition several times, and was named by the BBC as one of the worlds eight most amazing footbridges. Come see this amazing attraction in Boone County!

Let's Bloom There!

Iowa
Arboretum & Gardens

For more information call 515.795.3216 or visit the Arboretum's website at iowaarboretum.org.

Founded in 1968, the IOWA ARBORETUM & GARDENS has become Iowa's premier public garden. Located near Madrid, the 40 acres of beautifully landscaped gardens and grounds features plants, both native and introduced to Iowa. Visitors walking the circular trail system can see the Arboretum's major collections of trees, shrubs and flowers along with significant collections of dwarf conifers, hostas and daylilies. The Children's Garden will entertain the youngest of guests with a secret tunnel, one-room schoolhouse playhouse and gardens. Across from the main campus, visitors can stroll along extensive trails in a native Iowa woodland and prairie.

Modern facilities are available for hosting meetings, retreats, parties and weddings. Find unique home and garden décor at the Arboretum's gift shop. Special events, educational workshops and plant sales are offered throughout the year. Guided tours are available for individuals of all ages (call for a reservation).

Swede Point Park

This little known piece of heaven is located in southern Boone County, just a mile north of state Highway 210 near the Des Moines River Valley. SWEDE POINT gets its name from the Swedish settlers who located their families near this area in 1846.

The park features 24 electric camping sites with new gravel pads and two non-electric camping areas. A modern bathroom and showering facility, two hiking trails, picnicking and updated playground equipment, basketball court, sand volleyball and an enclosed shelter house (reservations required).

The area terrain is a mix of prairie, streams, and oak-hickory woodlands and savannas. You will find a large array of wildlife here from deer and coyotes to owls and hummingbirds. The Des Moines River is just a short but challenging hike down into the deep valley, but well worth the effort. At the river you might find bald eagles, raccoon, pelicans, and more. If you are looking for a quiet getaway, look no further than Swede Point Park.

Madrid History Museum

THE MADRID HISTORY MUSEUM showcases the development of the community from the first years of settlement by a group of Swedish settlers (then known as Swede Point), to the coming of the railroad and the coal mining industry. The Museum is also known for the extensive Keigley doll collection and Genealogy Center. Visit the Museum website for a virtual tour at www.madridiamuseum.com.

Open every Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to noon, and Mondays 9:30 a.m. to noon, and by appointment by calling (515) 795-3249.

Boone Valley Brewing

Our story starts as more of a notion than a true mission – a simple wish to try brewing beer. The beer that came from a brewing kit was pretty successful, but not nearly enough of a challenge for Rick Srigley. This little side project grew into a true passion for brewing. Many hours were spent in the garage with family, friends, and neighbors testing skills and “tweaking” beers. Always looking for an honest opinion to help him develop his beers, Rick entered competitions in Iowa, Colorado, Minnesota, and Wisconsin, winning several awards along the way. The growing success and desire to share the beer led him and his family to open the BOONE VALLEY BREWING TAPROOM in early 2012 with a 1bbl brewing system. In April of 2015, the BVB team expanded its facility to a 20bbl brewing system and moved main production across the street. BVB’s bottles and kegs are distributed all over central Iowa and Cedar Falls/Waterloo area. Boone Valley Brewery remains dedicated to crafting quality beers and building genuine relationships. Thanks for dropping into the valley!

Boone!

Founded in 1866, the city of Boone was originally named Montana. By 1871 it had been renamed BOONE after Capt. Nathaniel Boone, youngest son of Daniel Boone, who led Company H of the Dragoons across what became the state of Iowa back in 1835. Not too far away, another small town called Boonesboro had popped up. Eventually it became a part of its larger neighbor. It was the railroad that led to the incorporation of this community, and was a major player in its growth for the first century of its existence. Boone also laid claim to a rich coal mining operation for the better part of the early twentieth century. Due to these two industries, Boone quickly grew to a community of 12,000 people by 1920 with a bustling mainstreet topped by two domineering (at the time) bank buildings, First National Bank (now US Bank), and Boone National Bank.

The city remains intrinsically tied to its railroad heritage with many displays reflecting this history, as well as a major attraction, the Boone & Scenic Valley Railroad operating tourist excursions throughout the year into the nearby Des Moines River Valley. Boone is also host to one of the state's largest community festivals, appropriately named "Pufferbilly Days™" after the little steam engines that were used in coal mines. With tons of specialty shops, and plenty of places to eat, drink or enjoy time with your family, Boone is a fantastic destination located in the heart of Boone County.

Boone & Scenic Valley Railroad and the James H. Andrew Railroad Museum

Each year, thousands of people from across the state, the nation, and around the world make the trek to Boone, Iowa to ride the rails of the Boone & Scenic Valley Railroad, “The Scenic Line.” The line, known for its 156’ Bass Point Creek High Bridge (offering a breathtaking view of the Des Moines River Valley), its Chinese steam locomotive, dinner trains, and special events such as Sunset BBQ Train and the New Wolf Lunch Train, exists today due to the need to move coal out of the Des Moines River Valley.

Operating daily from Memorial Day Weekend through October 31, plus special events throughout the year (including Day Out With Thomas, Santa Express, Pumpkin, Valentine Train and other special trains), we truly do offer something for everyone.

Let's Learn There!

Central Iowa Expo

One of the nation's newest and largest outdoor event venues, the Central Iowa Expo, was constructed in 2008 as a host site for the biennial home of the Farm Progress Show, held the Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday before Labor Day in every even-numbered year. The Expo is laid out like a miniature city with a network of roads and utilities available across the site that make hosting almost any sized event a breeze to plan and operate. The site has hosted concerts, like Luke Bryan's Farm Tour and Lazerfest, ag equipment and automobile auctions, technology demonstrations and company meetings and retreats. The Expo's Administration Building is perfect for gatherings that need to be held indoors, or as a complement to the outdoor event, and features space for meetings that can seat up to 160 people. It also includes a small conference room for breakout sessions, and boasts a full kitchen to allow event planners to coordinate their own meals or host a catered event.

Go to www.CentrallowaExpo.com for a list of upcoming events.

Hunting & Fishing

Boone County is one of the RICHEST AREAS IN IOWA FOR HUNTING ACCESS, boasting over 10,000 acres of public land. Opportunities to find deer, turkey, waterfowl and all types of small game abound. Areas like the rugged Barkley and Holst State Forests, the McCoy Wildlife Area, Harrier Marsh, and the forests and floodplains along the Des Moines River Valley provide some incredible settings for any hunting excursion. Access points, aerial maps and more can be found online at www.iowadnr.gov/hunting/places-to-hunt-shoot/wildlife-management-areas.

GREAT FISHING can be found in Boone County at any time of year. The spring and fall are particularly good for hungry walleyes in the Des Moines River at places like the Fraser Dam and Tilley's Hole. You'll pull catfish out of most any stretch of the river throughout the summer months too. Don't overlook Don Williams Lake either; you'll keep your lines tight in the summer with bass and through the winter ice with an abundance of crappie and bluegill.

Basecamp for any hunting or fishing expedition begins with the CABINS AT DON WILLIAMS RECREATION AREA. These rustic 4-season cabins provide a cozy place close to some of the best hunting and fishing the county has to offer. Visit www.mycountyparks.com/County/Boone/Facility/Search.aspx to find out more on their details and availability.

Let's Putt There!

From beginners to pros, Boone County offers golf for all different levels. CEDAR POINTE GOLF COURSE is a beautiful and unique course with the original front nine holes designed in the early 1900's and known to be one of Iowa's oldest. The back nine is more moderate and came roughly 100 years later. No matter what style this course is known to be fun and make sure you stop in the lounge after to grab refreshments. HONEY CREEK GOLF CLUB is nestled in the River Valley offering beautiful trees, rolling hills and scenery of the Ledges State Park. This exceptional course will offer many memories. The 9-hole "Boone County" course at DON WILLIAMS features a par 36. This course was opened in 1962 and continues to stay busy every season. Add golfing to the list of things to do in Boone County!

COLE SCHOOL

The Little Brick Schoolhouse on the Prairie

Cole School operated from 1888-1933 and is located northeast of Boone on R Avenue. This school is notable due to the unique brickwork of this historic structure that supports three layers of brick. The school was adopted by the De Shon Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) who completely and accurately restored the site. The restoration process at Cole School included extensive masonry work with complete tuck pointing, a whole new floor to replace the floor lost to time and elements, great cleaning (due to sheep once housed inside of Cole School for some time) and new blackboards which came from a local high school. School desks were acquired from local auctions, and a variety of books, school-related artifacts, a potbelly stove and teacher supplies are all part of the Cole School collection. The Country School Association of America has recognized the facility on their national registry of rural school houses. DAR maintains the site and visits to Cole School can be arranged by contacting DAR Member: Marilyn Tagesen at 515.490.2207.

Hickory Grove School was originally built in 1889 in the northeastern corner of Yell Township. A visit allows youngsters to sit in desks once occupied by students, and for guests of all ages to remember a time that echoes a simpler era that can feel both comforting and primitive. Historical maps, world globes, teaching tools, school primers, encyclopedias and a variety of country school artifacts amplify a collection that spans from 1889 to 1956. The museum now sits on the site of the Battin Chapel, which contains a well-preserved railroad depot in addition to the chapel and school. Boone History Museums and the Battin Heritage Association jointly sponsor the museum located at the juncture of old Highway 30 (E41) and J Avenue between Ogden and Boone

Kate Shelley Memorial High Bridge

July 6, 1881, is a date forever rooted in Boone County's history. As the shadow of midnight encroached on the landscape of the river valley of Moingona, Iowa, and a ferocious storm raged in the vicinity of the Shelley Homestead, 15-year-old Kate Shelley was considering the fates of others.

Dressed in a simple prairie dress, Kate Shelley left the safety of her home in the pelting rain. Crawling across the Des Moines River Bridge under thundering skies and over frothing black waters that lapped beneath her, she advanced to save the lives of those in danger in an oncoming train. Kate Shelley's bravery made her instantly famous from California to New York where her story played out in national headlines. The medals she received for heroism are on display at the Boone Co. History Center, along with the lantern she carried that night. Other mementos and accolades of her heroic act can be viewed at the Park and Museum.

Mamie Doud Eisenhower Birthplace

Mamie Geneva Doud was born on November 14, 1896, at 718 Carroll St. in Boone. Mamie was the second of four daughters born to Elvera Mathilde (Carlson) and John Sheldon Doud. She grew up to become the wife of the 34th president of the United States, Dwight David Eisenhower.

While Mamie was still an infant, the Douds moved from Boone to Cedar Rapids. In 1905, after making a fortune in the meat packing industry, Doud moved his family to Colorado where they eventually settled in Denver. However, Mamie never lost contact with her mother's Boone family, the Carlsons. Throughout the 1940s to the 1960s, the Eisenhower family regularly visited Boone. After Ike's death in 1969, the Eisenhower family frequently visited Boone. Mamie continued to return to Boone, making her last trip in 1977, two years before her own death.

Over the years, the Birthplace was inhabited by many families, at one time housing three individual apartments that meant extremely close quarters for residents. By 1970, the Eisenhower Birthplace home was set for demolition and local citizens were quick to sound the alarm. The Friends of the Mamie Doud Eisenhower Birthplace raised thousands of dollars to obtain the home, and the land was donated for the relocation of the Birthplace in 1975 to a location across the street. Following five years of restoration, the Mamie Doud Eisenhower Birthplace opened on June 22, 1980.
