Jackson County's well-maintained parks offer diverse recreational opportunities with modern facilities for family, friends and business gatherings.

Emigrant Lake

As one of Jackson County Park's most popular destinations, Emigrant Lake has it all. Located just minutes from Ashland, the park offers a host of activities for the entire family — from camping at the RV park or the 42-tent site campground to swimming, picnicking, fishing, hiking, boating, canoeing, kayaking and playing on the playground. Day Use: Open year-round

RV Park with Full Hookup

The Point RV park features 32 sites with full hookups — overlooking 12 miles of beautiful shoreline on the lake's north end. Each site offers water, 50-amp electrical service, sewer, and ample 14' x 50' pads to accommodate any size RV. The park also includes a restroom and shower facility. RV Park open year-round

The Oak Slope Campground features 42 tent sites. Sites include a campfire ring and table with a restroom and shower facility nearby.

Oak Slope Campground open: March - Oct.

Reservations are accepted for sites at both campgrounds - reservation fee applies. For reservations and prices, call (541) 774-8183 or go online to jacksoncountyparks.com.

280-Foot Waterslide

Refreshing summer fun can be found at the Emigrant Lake Water Slide. The slide offers showers, restrooms, picnic tables and a concession stand with a full menu. Please call or visit our website for hours and prices.

Slide open Memorial Day - Labor Day

Howard Prairie Lake Recreational Area

It's a recreation bonanza at this alpine lake high above the southern Rogue Valley. The lake is a popular destination for boating, sailing, and fishing. Campsites are abundant, and the Pacific Crest Trail is easily accessible. Features include fishing, camping, and boat launch facilities at Grizzly, Willow Point, and Klum Landing (this area features restrooms and showers). Group Camps are available at Sugar Pine; and the Lily Glen Equestrian Area with its corrals and horse trails. Reservations are accepted for sites at Willow Point at jacksoncountyparks.com and Sugar Pine and Lily Glen Group Camps at (541) 774-8183.

Day Use & Camping: Apr. - Oct.

Howard Prairie Resort offers a restaurant, store, marina, boat rentals, boat ramp, handicap-accessible fishing platform and picnic area, and campground with RV hookups, restroom/shower complex. Reservations available at jacksoncountyparks.com or call (541) 774-8183.

Day Use and Campgrounds open: Apr. - Oct.

Apserkaha on Howard Prairie Lake

Located on the southern shore of Howard Prairie Lake, this park provides a unique outdoor experience. The camp is situated on 66 wooded acres and features almost a half-mile of lake frontage. The secluded lake access is an inviting feature of the park. Camp facilities include a preparation kitchen (only with group reservations) and covered dining area seating 80, 12 fully enclosed, lighted sleeping cabins, and 9 RV sites with water and electric hookups. Apserkaha RV sites and Cabins are available on a first come first serve basis, or the entire park can be reserved for your group. For information/reservations call the Parks Office at (541) 774-8183. Campground open: Apr. - Nov.

Willow Lake

Perfect for a weekend campout, the family vacation, romantic getaway or business retreat, this park offers 4.4 miles of lake frontage, and recreational activities including hiking, swimming, fishing for trout, bass or crappie, camping and boating. This picturesque park, with a beautiful view of Mt. McLoughlin, offers a 63-site campground (32 tent sites & 31 hookup sites), 4 two-bedroom cabins (sleeps 6) with a kitchen and a bathroom with shower, 2 yurts, and a separate group camp area, which accommodates up to 150 people. For campsite, cabin and yurt reservations, go online to jacksoncountyparks.com. For group camp reservations, call (541) 774-8183.

Campground open: Apr. - Oct.

Day Use: Open year-round

Rogue Elk

The upper Rogue River runs along this park for about three-quarters of a mile, providing good river access for fishing and rafting. This is the County's most popular camping spot, with prime riverfront campsites, water/electric hookups, restroom/shower facility and a playground. For campsite reservations, go to the website at jacksoncountyparks.com.

Day Use is open year-round. Campground open: Apr. - Oct.

Joseph H. Stewart County Park

Over 200 RV sites, swimming, fishing, boating, hiking, biking - Joseph H. Stewart has them all! The camp area has restrooms, hot showers, a playground, and a fenced-off area for dogs, and many sites have RV hookups. Come for a day or stay overnight! There's also a camp store for supplies, a café for food, and a marina for boat rentals. Learn more and reserve your campsite at josephstewartresort.com.

Dodge Bridge

The Rogue River flows along this popular park, which features a boat ramp, flushing toilets, and a handicap-accessible fishing platform. Fishing, rafting and boating are the main attractions at this park. Day Use is open year-round

Takelma

Located just north of Dodge Bridge, this park is a popular spot among anglers and rafters. The park offers one-third mile of easy access to the Rogue River and features a boat ramp, vault toilet, and paved parking with night lights.

Day Use is open year-round

Upper Rogue Regional Park

The park is a great place to access the Rogue River for rafting and fishing, or to enjoy a waterfront picnic. Park features include a boat ramp, picnic tables, barbecues, playground, restrooms and a handicap-accessible fishing platform. Day Use is open year-round

The Riverhouse on the Rogue River

Located within the Upper Rogue Regional Park is The Riverhouse overlooking the Upper Rogue River in Shady Cove.
