Welcome to Coast to Coast!

You have a world of travel possibilities available to you as a member of Coast to Coast. To get you started, this publication highlights some of our favorite Coast network resorts.

If you're a history buff, check out Gettysburg Battlefield Resort in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, located immediately adjacent to the battlefield and containing a historic building that was used as a hospital during this pivotal Civil War battle.

Or if you prefer personal watercrafts and ATVing, consider Emerald Cove Resort in Earp, California, located directly on the Colorado River between Arizona and California and surrounded by thousands of acres of BLM land.

Planning a trip to see Mount Rushmore? Rushmore Shadows Resort in Rapid City, South Dakota, is just minutes from this stirring national monument and your gateway to all the many attractions that the Black Hills has to offer.

Headed north to escape the summer heat? Consider Lake Shore Resort in Davison, Michigan, featuring indoor and outdoor pools, a lake for paddle boating and fishing, and a lazy river that will bring out the kid in all of us.

During our over 50 year history, Coast to Coast has helped tens of thousands of RVers fulfill their dreams of traveling our great country. We hope the more than 75 resorts featured here will get you on the road to creating your own cherished travel memories with your Coast to Coast membership. BEAUTIFUL SOUTHERN RESORT ON THE SHORES OF SCENIC GUNTERSVILLE LAKE

RESORT TYPE: Premier

LOCATION: Langston, Alabama

SEASON: Year-round

WEBSITE: oceancanyon.com

You don't have to like fishing in order to enjoy pulling your rig into Mountain Lakes Resort in Langston, Alabama, but it helps. The resort is located on the eastern shore of 68,000-acre Gunterville Lake. From the resort, there are several fishing piers and boat docks for those who enjoy fishing on one of the country's premiere bass lakes. Put your toes or more into the water at the lake's swimming beach or launch your boat at the resort's boat ramp. The lake also provides a beautiful sunset view.

There are other reasons to come to Mountain Lakes Resort. Imagine that you've pulled into the resort and discover that all the RV sites are pull throughs and provide ample room for you to get comfortably situated. Come play hard or just relax and enjoy the peaceful sounds, clean air, and comfort of natural surroundings. There are lots of other activities to keep you busy if you're not an angler. Explore the beautiful two-story clubhouse which includes a kids' recreation room. Pitch horseshoes or take on any comers on the volleyball courts or mini golf.

Lounge alongside or get into one of the two swimming pools—outdoor and indoor. Enjoy Wi-Fi and take your four-legged friend to the dog park. Don't feel like cooking? You're in luck with the resort's café. If you travel without your rig, there are a wide variety of rental accommodations including cabins, condos and cottages. You can bring the whole family! Just a short drive from the resort is Huntsville, Alabama, nicknamed "The Rocket City." It is home to the U.S. Space and Rocket Center, the top tourist attraction in Alabama. The center has been key in the development of space technology for the U.S. since the 1950s, and is where rockets were developed that put men on the moon. Current exhibits include NASA's plans to travel to Mars.

STYX RIVER RV RESORT

A RIVER RUNS BY IT

Imagine a lazy river with crystal clear water and a sandy bottom and just think about how many things you could do in it and around it. Well imagine no more. Drive into Styx River RV Resort in Robertsdale, Alabama, and you don't have to imagine. You can do it all.

Rent a tube and take a float on the river. Pack a picnic lunch because there are plenty of sandbars on which to stop and enjoy. The winding slow current takes you through primitive rural landscapes and has ideal fishing and swimming.

After a long day of driving, it's a breath of fresh air to find a resort that's easy to get to. The resort is right off Interstate 10 between Mobile, Alabama, and Pensacola, Florida. It's the place to kick up your feet and bask in the peaceful sounds, clean air, and comfort of natural surroundings.

While parked at your spacious pull-through site, you may choose to relax at the site or take advantage of the many activities dotted throughout the property. Cool off in the indoor or outdoor pool. Grab a meal at the restaurant or a treat at the snack bar. Let your kids get the wiggles out at the playground and recreation room. Send your teens to the Teen Center. Challenge a neighbor to a game on one of the game courts or take a walk or run on the nature trails. Play horseshoes, shuffleboard, or miniature golf. Relax in the large clubhouse and enjoy the Wi-Fi.

You don't have to, but you'll be glad you joined one of the many planned activities, which include potlucks, ice cream socials, bingo nights, and flea markets. There are also beautiful cabin rentals, clean laundry facilities, and RV storage.

A prime destination for year-round camping, Styx River RV Resort is just 40 minutes from the Gulf of Mexico.

BEE'S RV RESORT

RESORT TYPE: Deluxe
LOCATION: Clermont, Florida
SEASON: Year-round
WEBSITE: beesrvresort.com

STAY BUSY AS A BEE

It's a beautiful day at the Bee's RV Resort! The resort is located in the beautiful city of Clermont off Highway 27 or take Exit 285 on Florida's Turnpike Northbound. Come enjoy the unique beauty, tropical foliage, and diverse wildlife of Central Florida. This resort is the perfect base for your adventures, within close proximity of many tourist attractions such as Disney World, Universal Studios, Sea World, and International Drive just to name a few. We are also located just minutes from local shops, restaurants, golf courses, lakes for fishing and boating, and nature trails for hiking and seeing wildlife.

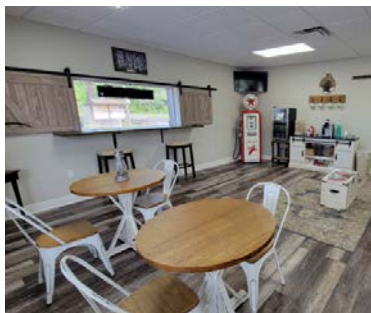

The activities department at our resort makes sure that there are plenty of activities planned each day. Visit the Bee Hive Activity Center daily where you can enjoy card games, bingo, quilting, different crafts, bumper-to-bumper, church services, bible study, or morning coffee with friends just to name a few. In season the resort also hosts several themed dances, monthly car shows, concerts, potlucks, and cookouts.

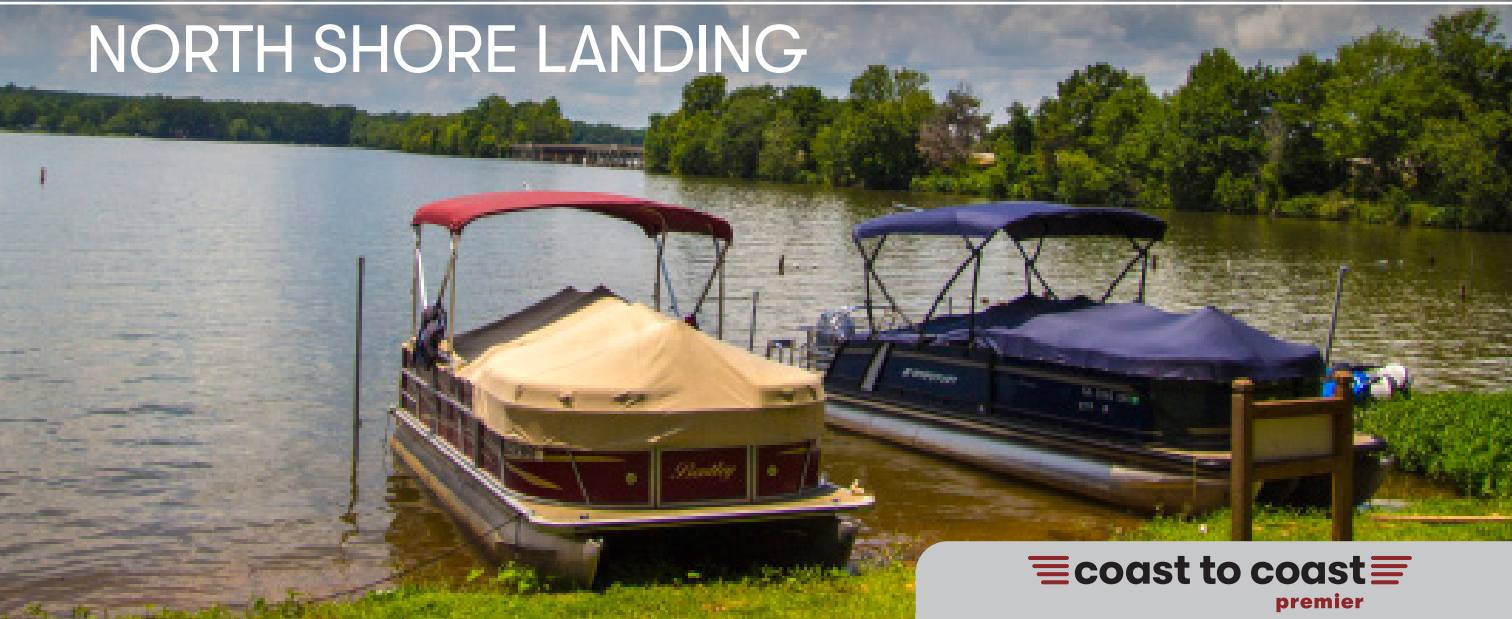

Outdoor amenities include a lighted shuffleboard court, beautiful nature trail, solar heated pool with pergola and petanque courts.

You can all but hang up your apron with the on-site restaurant serving up family favorites such as specialty pizzas, subs and calzones, salads and pasta salads, sandwiches, and Coney Island hot dogs.

In addition to the friendly atmosphere, Bee's RV Resort offers 20, 30, and 50 amp sites, dump station, hot showers, ice, coin laundry, high-speed Wi-Fi, propane, mailboxes with mail forwarding services, pull-through sites and paved sites.

From the moment you arrive, you will feel right at home among the welcoming community of friends.

PERFECT MIX OF RUSTIC CAMPING & AMENITIES

RESORT TYPE: Premier

LOCATION: Greensboro, Georgia

SEASON: Year-round

WEBSITE: travelresorts.com

Situated on 55 acres by the enchanted Lake Oconee, North Shore Landing in Greensboro, Georgia, is a pure natural beauty. Its majestic location, just east of Atlanta, makes it one of the most enjoyable and wonderful RV camping properties.

You don't have to be into trains to find joy at this resort, but it helps. The campground features 13 authentic railroad boxcars, club cars, and cabooses. In addition to their use as offices and shops, four train cars offer comfy accommodations for overnight stays. Cottages can be rented and RVers are treated to spacious RV sites with full hook-ups and Wi-Fi.

The "landing" part of the resort's name refers to the fact that the campground is situated on Lake Oconee, a reservoir with 374 miles of shoreline. Visitors to the resort can take advantage of the private white sand beach, boat slips and boat launch, and fishing—so don't forget to bring your fishing gear, swimsuits, and water toys. Other amenities include a 4,000-square-foot clubhouse, two pools, a fish cleaning station, walking trails, two entertainment pavilions, and covered picnic areas. Play games galore in the clubhouse game room or outside on the game courts.

In addition to many onsite amenities, you can meet old friends or make new ones at the weekly themed planned activities. These include socials, indoor and outdoor games, corn hole, horseshoes, fishing tournaments, cards, games, potlucks, dances, entertainment, contests, kid and adult crafts, special holiday-themed events and nondenominational church services. If you've forgotten anything, visit the general store.

Offsite, the town of Greensboro offers an array of shops, historic attractions, and world-class golf. Greensboro is steeped in Southern history and tradition, and rich with elegant antebellum homes and churches. Lake Oconee is home to 10 championship golf courses designed by some of the greatest golf course designers in the world.

ALLEGANY MOUNTAIN RESORT

LOCATION: East Otto, New York

SEASON: May 1 - October 15

WEBSITE: alleganymountainresort.com

HAVE IT YOUR WAY

With hundreds of sites available at Allegany Mountain Resort in East Otto, New York, you can choose the type of site you prefer. Are you looking for a lakeview or to be up on a hill? Do you want to be surrounded by other campers that will quickly become your friends or would you like a more private spot? No matter what your preferences are, you will find a site that will make your camping experience nothing less than perfect.

The RV sites are also equipped with everything you'll need for an enjoyable and seamless experience. Each site is complete with water and electric hook-up, and allows enough space for two vehicles and one golf cart in addition to the RV.

There is no shortage of activities and recreation for campers of all ages at Allegany Mountain Resort. With the 70-acre Rainbow Lake right outside of your campsite, there are endless ways to enjoy the serenity it has to offer whether you're simply enjoying the view from your cabin deck or are out on the lake on a kayak or canoe. For those that prefer staying cool in a pool, there are two outdoor pools and one indoor pool for guests to enjoy no matter what the weather.

Fun can also be found outside of the water. Campers can find a sports game or group activity going on at almost any time of day. Play an organized game of kickball, your own pick-up game of shuffleboard, or attend bingo or the weekly craft class. No matter what your age or favorite type of fun, you can spend time with old friends and meet new ones.

Sports and activities include mini golf, sand volleyball courts, tennis courts, basketball courts, baseball field, soccer field, horseshoes, shuffleboard, playgrounds, and nature trails.

RESORT TYPE: Premier

LOCATION: Parish, New York

SEASON: May 1 – October 10

WEBSITE: www.travelresorts.com

TWO-HUNDRED FORTY-FOUR ACRES ADJACENT TO BASS LAKE

Bass Lake Resort is a unique campground offering the perfect combination of modern-day amenities and RV camping in natural surroundings. With more than 25 acres of lake, hundreds of campsites, plus cabin accommodations, you'll have plenty of space to wander and enjoy all that nature has to offer at this 244-acre resort.

After check-in and set up at your spacious RV site, you'll have time to explore. Start by visiting one of the two clubhouses. After traveling, maybe the best thing for you to do is take a dip in one of the two crystal-clear swimming pools. Try the slide and feel like a kid again.

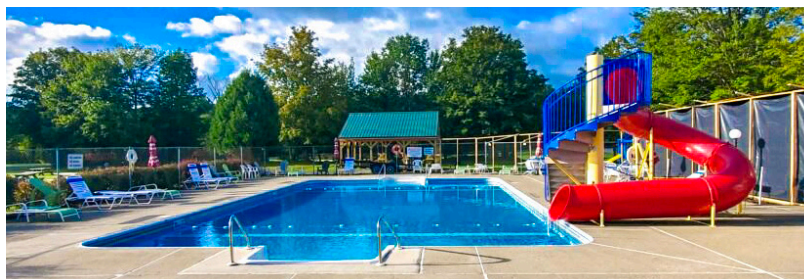

There's plenty of opportunity to learn or perfect your game at the many sports areas including a playground, miniature golf, horseshoes, outdoor courts, and basketball. Take your gaming inside and play pool, pick up a card game in the recreation room or learn new games in the arcade. Try hiking or biking on the many nature trails. From your home base, you can hike in beautiful state parks or visit events, festivals, or historic buildings and museums.

If you've forgotten that special ingredient for a recipe, shop at the camp store, or take off your apron and treat yourself to the onsite bar and restaurant. Plus, right around the corner from the campground are plenty of activities and dining options.

The 25-acre Bass Lake is another opportunity to enjoy water sports and is ideal for fishing, boating, or just relaxing. And, as the name suggests, pack your fishing equipment.

The resort is located just 30 minutes north of Syracuse and 40 minutes south of Watertown. Bass Lake Resort is easily accessible by New York Interstates 90 and 81, making short getaways possible even during a busy week. You'll feel safe once inside the gated entrance.

And your four-legged friend hasn't been forgotten. Give them a good run at the resort's dog park.

CELEBRATE 33 YEARS WITH THE SWIFT FAMILY

Although the region is packed with natural wonders, the best thing about staying at Niagara's Lazy Lakes Resort in Lockport, New York, is the family atmosphere. For more than 33 years, the Swift family has been welcoming visitors to their resort. In fact, when you enter the resort, you'll see a sign that says, "Welcome Home."

Lazy Lakes Resort has two spring-fed lakes for boating and fishing. The largest pond is full of big bass for catch-and-release fishing. For no fee you can take out the row boats, kayaks, canoes, or splash boats. Everyone enjoys the two in-ground heated swimming pools with lifeguards on duty.

The 4,000 square foot main lodge is available for numerous resort activities for all ages. Enjoy breakfast in the lodge on Saturday or Sunday, as well as weekend barbecues in the outdoor pavilion. All campsites have city water, 30-amp or 50-amp electric hookups, picnic tables, and fire rings for campfires.

Should you forget to bring something, the "Country Store" at Lazy Lakes is well stocked. For your pleasure, enjoy shuffleboard, row boating, horseshoes, and nine beautiful one and two bedroom rental cabins.

Of course you can't ignore the fact that the resort is within 15 minutes of Niagara Falls and 10 minutes from the Niagara River and Lake Ontario. You can also visit nearby Lockport.

According to Stewart Scott, a Canadian traveler in 1826, "As Niagara Falls are the greatest natural wonder, so Lockport, its locks, and the portion of the Erie Canal adjacent, are considered to be the greatest artificial curiosity in this part of America." Proposed in 1808 and completed in 1825, the canal links the waters of Lake Erie in the west to the Hudson River in the east. An engineering marvel when it was built, some called it the Eighth Wonder of the World.

SET AMID NEW YORK'S BEAUTIFUL ADIRONDACK REGION

Drive into Saratoga Escape Lodges and RV Park in Greenfield Center, New York, and you'll have many choices to make. Choose between a waterfront or standard RV site. If you travel without your RV, then choose either a deluxe cabin or an efficiency cabin. You also have a choice between relaxing at the lovely spring-fed pond or playing in the aqua playground.

Of course, you don't have to choose between other amenities. You can enjoy them all. The activities area boasts miniature golf, swimming pool, and playgrounds. Treat your sweet tooth at the ice cream parlor. Skip cooking and grab lunch at the snack bar. Forgot the salt? Find what you need at the convenience store. Other activities include fishing, paddle boards, and canoeing in the private lake surrounded by tall pine trees and scenic beauty. The resort activities directors make sure you have plenty of activities, entertainment, and themed weekends.

Take a stroll across the covered bridge over a pristine waterfall and through a richly wooded nature trail.

RESORT TYPE: Deluxe

Then relax by a campfire with your family and enjoy the moonlight reflecting off the beautiful lake. Saratoga Escape is just minutes from the famous Saratoga race track, Saratoga Performing Arts Center, and downtown shopping on Broadway. Beautiful Lake George, "Queen of the American Lakes," is an easy 20-minute drive. The resort is convenient to white-water rafting, hiking in the beautiful Adirondack mountains, and visiting numerous historical sites.

Nearby Lookingback Farm is a 16-acre horse farm with indoor and outdoor riding arena. Lessons (your horse or theirs), boarding, and training is available. The whitewater rafting season in the Adirondacks typically runs April through mid- October. Spring is the best time for thrill seekers because the snow melt-off creates ideal fast-moving white water for weeks during the spring. The Hudson River rapids have Class III, IV, and V ratings.

CAMP HATTERAS RESORT

RESORT TYPE: Classic

LOCATION: Waves, North Carolina

SEASON: Year-round

LIFE ON A SANDBAR AT THE OUTER BANKS

You don't have to travel with kids, but it's a plus when you hook up at Camp Hatteras in Waves, North Carolina. So, load up your kids and / or grandchildren and head east to Hatteras Island in the Outer Banks of North Carolina. Surrounded by two bodies of water—the Pamlico Sound and the Atlantic Ocean—it's perfect for anyone who loves sun, sand, and the sea.

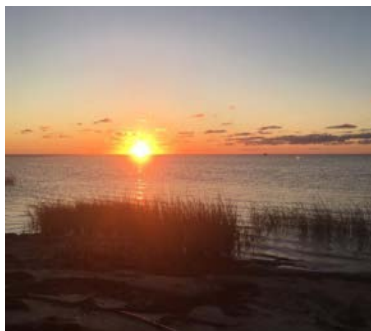

And for you and your family there are numerous planned activities during the summer months. There's also miniature golf, tennis, basketball, three pools, a Jacuzzi, and a large game room. The pools include an indoor heated pool, outdoor pool, and kiddie pool. Bring your fishing gear and try your luck at the fishing ponds. Take advantage of the marina with water sports rentals. A playground area features a climbing center and swing set, horseshoes, and shuffleboard.

Of course, the resort is also perfect for those who prefer to sit back and relax and enjoy the sound of the ocean from your own site. The resort sits on 50 acres with oceanfront and sound- front accommodations and offers access to the beach and the Pamlico Sound. Enjoy full hook-up sites with concrete pad and patio, cable TV, and Wi-Fi. And you'll be close to a bath house and laundry facilities—all in all five bath houses and four laundry facilities.

During summer there are numerous planned activities. If you've brought your furry friend, enjoy the dog park that's been a hit for those traveling with a pet.

The Outer Banks is well known for its lighthouses, the Wright Brother's Memorial, and Blackbeard the Pirate, among other facts and lore. The resort is located approximately 24 miles south of Nags Head and 35 miles north of the Village of Hatteras and ferry docks to Ocracoke.

GOLF AND NORTH CAROLINA EQUALS GREAT CAMPING

Minutes from the famed Pinehurst Golf Courses, Sycamore Lodge in Jackson Springs, North Carolina, could certainly be your home base for an amazing golf vacation. But there's more than golf in this spacious resort located on nearly 200 acres of prime land dotted with dogwood, oak, and giant magnolia trees. And if you're a birder, the endangered red-cockaded woodpecker makes its home in the resort's pines.

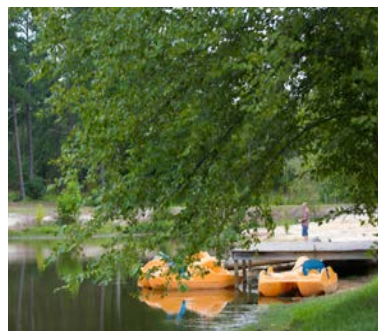

The centerpiece of the property is the lodge, which was hand built in 1905 with logs from pine trees located on the property. It's the perfect setting to meet old and new friends. Relax in front of the hand-built fireplaces in each room or warm up with the original wood-burning stove in the kitchen.

Sycamore Lodge Resort is just minutes from the famed Pinehurst Golf Courses—nine of them in fact. Pinehurst has some of the most beautiful courses in the U.S., so keep your golf clubs handy. It's easy to store fishing gear in your rig and it will come in handy when fishing at the bass-stocked lake. What could be better than catching the big one for dinner?

The acres of the luxury RV resort are exquisitely manicured and shaded by beautiful tall Southern Pines. If you aren't into sports, choose to relax at your site or lounge within the terraced gardens or at the swimming pool and Jacuzzi complex. Take a brisk or leisurely walk on the nature trail or kick up your heels in the dance pavilion.

Sitting by the lake and watching others in their boats and canoes could be considered a sport of a sort. If you need something more to do, the activities staff offers theme event weekends during the year, ranging from the Hawaiian Luau to a North Carolina style Hillbilly Hoe-Down.

ARROWHEAD LAKES RESORT

NATURE, LAKES AND LOTS OF TREES

Arrowhead Lakes Resort in beautiful Wapakoneta, Ohio, welcomes all RVers who enjoy modern amenities in a traditional outdoorsy camping setting. Nature, lakes, and lots of trees will give you the relaxation you are looking for, while the modern amenities will allow you the opportunity to stay active and still have the comforts of home.

Year-round you can enjoy all things water including swimming in the large indoor swimming pool and relaxing in the spa and sauna. Choose a range of boats to explore the fishing lakes and ponds. Choose between paddle boats, row boats, aqua cycles, and kayaks.

Sports people have a range of activities to enjoy. Meet old and new friends on the putt-putt golf course. Pitch horseshoes, play basketball, volleyball, and shuffleboard. The activities department keeps you busy with themed activities. Your children or grandchildren will enjoy the playgrounds and all ages can explore the clubhouse and shop in the camp store.

If you decide to "venture out" of the resort, the city of Wapakoneta was named by Smithsonian Magazine as one of the best small towns to visit. It is the home of Neil Armstrong, the first man to set foot on the Moon.

You'll want to visit the Armstrong Air and Space Museum, which shares the story of Armstrong, all Ohioans who have attempted to defy gravity, the Space Race, and current space exploration. The museum is designed to resemble a futuristic moon base. It is most beautiful when viewed at dusk.

Hop in the car and take a short drive to the beautiful Indian Lake where there are endless opportunities for watersports, enjoying the lake views with good food and drinks, or trying to catch the lake's main draw, its incredible saugeye fishing.

BACK-TO-NATURE CAMPING WITH MODERN-DAY AMENITIES

With hundreds of spacious sites and 100 lodging facilities, Rocky Fork Ranch in Kimbolton, Ohio, provides lodging and sites to accommodate every visitor. Set on 950 acres of wooded and rolling landscape, you'll feel surrounded by nature.

But it's not all back-to-nature, as you'll be amazed at the number of activities and amenities. The resort's accommodations are complemented by a clubhouse, indoor pool, gym, sauna, adult lounge, game room, and more. Hiking is a popular activity with beautiful woods, a rocky landscape, and streams throughout the property. Take advantage of the miles of beautiful trails in the area to ride your horse or one of the resort's horses. There's also a rodeo arena with regular competitions and stables built to look like an authentic Western town. Let your younger ones have their first horse-riding experience on one of the pony rides.

Everything is here for your convenience, including climate-controlled bath houses, a general store and café, and a physical fitness center. You're invited to put out your lawn chair and just sit and enjoy the scenery, or you can take advantage of the activities calendar which is jam-packed with new and fun options. The recreational lake provides opportunities for renting a canoe or pedal boat. Swim in the indoor and outdoor pools. Relax in the sauna or the adult lounge. Meet friends playing mini golf, tennis, volleyball, or hitting some balls at the golf driving range. In the game room, challenge your friends to a game of pool or other types of table games. There's also shuffleboard and horseshoes.

Not far away is Cambridge, Ohio, where you'll find the Dickens Victorian Village. See 80 classic Dickens-era scenes, which are comprised of 185 life-like figures. The scenes enhance Cambridge's outstanding 1800s' architecture.

Nearby is Salt Fork State Park, encompassing the woodlands and fields flanking Salt Fork Reservoir. As Ohio's largest state park, Salt Fork boasts 17,229-acres of recreational facilities.

WALLY WORLD RIVERSIDE RESORT

A RIVER RUNS BESIDE THIS OHIO RESORT

The name says it all—Wally World Riverside Resort. In this case, the river is the Mohican River and you can see the river from most campsites. The Mohican is known for being one of Ohio's largest outdoor recreational complexes and outfitters are prepared to take you on river adventures.

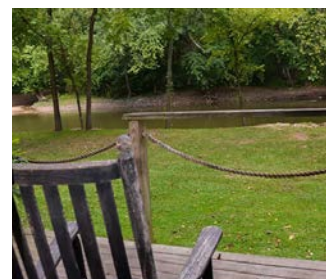

Don't worry about the weather, you can always take a swim in the heated outdoor swimming pool. Pick up any items you may have forgotten at the general store and enjoy a bite to eat at the snack bar. Meet new friends at the game room, ball courts, or playing horseshoes and mini golf. Relax in the hot tub. Activities directors keep you busy with planned activities and theme event weekends. And your four-legged friend is not forgotten at the dog park.

Wally World Riverside Resort in Loudonville is situated along the historic Wally Road Scenic Byway in the heart of Ohio's Amish country. With its location and access to many area attractions, Wally World is the perfect vacation destination. Visit the Amish attractions and "The Little Switzerland of Ohio" in Sugarcreek, or explore the heart of Amish Country in Berlin, kayak or canoe down the Mohican River, hike trails in the neighboring state parks, or just relax by the water or your campfire. There's so much to see and do you'll want to come back again and again!

If further exploration of Ohio is what you're looking for, then Wally World's location is perfect! Located halfway between Columbus and Cleveland, there is a world of sightseeing opportunities open to you.

Nearby, visit the Everett Covered Bridge, which crosses Furnace Run. This bridge is the only remaining covered bridge in Summit County. In the 19th century, it was one of more than 2,000 in Ohio, the state that led the U.S. in covered-bridge construction.

GETTYSBURG BATTLEFIELD RESORT

LOCATION: Gettysburg, Pennsylvania
SEASON: Year-round
WEBSITE: travelresorts.com

PERFECT COMBINATION OF AMENITIES & HISTORY

For Pennsylvanians, visiting Gettysburg is simply a rite of passage. For everyone, though, Gettysburg is a unique historical landmark with an impressive variety of memorable experiences to offer.

Gettysburg Battlefield RV Resort is a resort like no other. Surrounded by history and beauty, there is always something to do and learn. Literally on the edge of the famous battlefield, the resort boasts more than 250 campsites and a wide array of amenities to fit all your needs.

Take advantage of the proximity of the Gettysburg National Military Park where one of the most significant battles of the Civil War was fought from July 1st to the 3rd in 1863. Often referred to as the "High Water Mark of the Rebellion", Gettysburg was the Civil War's bloodiest battle and is widely regarded as a major turning point in the war.

The resort itself features a full range of amenities, including an Olympic-size swimming pool, a playground for the little ones, ball fields and courts, a general store to stock up on forgotten items, and an ice cream parlor with Hershey's hand dipped ice cream (among other snacks). The pond is perfect for sitting back and relaxing or some catch-and-release fishing. Take a break in the water with kayaks or canoes available to anyone staying in the park.

Gettysburg Battlefield Resort is just minutes away from so much that Gettysburg has to offer. Just a short drive from the resort is the historic downtown Gettysburg and battlefield, hiking on the beautiful Appalachian Trail, and Dutch and Amish country exploring. Not too distant is Washington, D.C., and all the capitol's attractions. Visit nearby Hershey Park, known as "the sweetest place on Earth". Gettysburg's proximity to Baltimore, MD also makes for an abundance of fresh seafood available at grocery stores and restaurants in the area.

This resort surely provides a home-away-from-home in a location rich with Americana culture and attractions fit for anyone.

ROARING RUN RESORT

RESORT TYPE: Deluxe

LOCATION: Champion, Pennsylvania

SEASON: May 15 - October 15

WEBSITE: roaringrunresort.com

YEAR-ROUND FUN IN THE LAUREL HIGHLANDS OF PENNSYLVANIA

Set in the heart of Laurel Highlands, Roaring Run Resort in Champion, Pennsylvania, is surrounded by some of the most beautiful scenery in the state. Why else would Pennsylvania create so many state parks in the area: Laurel Mountain, Kooser, Laurel Ridge, and Ohiopyle? Upscale resorts and ski resorts are also nestled nearby in the gorgeous mountains. If you like to add a bit of water to your vacation plans, there's quick access to many lakes, rivers, and streams. Bring your bike and hiking shoes along and take advantage of the 15 miles of bike and hiking trails, which lead into Ohiopyle State Park. If Frank Lloyd Wright loved the area and thought it was perfect for his signature home, Fallingwater, then it's probably perfect for you, too.

The owner of Roaring Run Resort has put a great deal of planning and hard work into selecting and creating what feels like a "superior resort." Once you're set up at your beautifully landscaped campsite, either settle in at your site or take advantage of the many activities. Amenities and activities include plenty of sporting venues: Olympic-size swimming pool, children's wading pool, large children's playground, and an 18-hole miniature golf course. Try your skill at bocce ball, horseshoes, shuffleboard, volleyball, tennis, and basketball. Grownups can enjoy the adult lodge. Learn new arts and crafts, play bingo, or take a hay-wagon ride. Grab your fishing pole and catch the big one at one of the many nearby fishing streams or golf on one of more than 30 golf courses throughout the area.

There are options if you travel without your rig. Roaring Run Resort offers the perfect solution with cabins designed for the ultimate vacation getaway. The cabins come complete with fully-stocked kitchen, TV and cable, bedroom, loft, bathroom with shower, lounge, dining table, and futon.

SOUTH CAROLINA

coast to coast

A TRUE GEM ON THE GRAND STRAND

Once inside the gates of Briarcliffe RV Resort in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, you'll first notice the amazing landscaping and paved streets with streetlights. Each roomy site has a concrete parking area, picnic table, and patio able to accept big rigs and provide the utilities to accommodate your state-of-the-art equipment.

Highlighting Briarcliffe's amenities is the 85-foot oversized Olympic swimming pool with cool deck and lounges to offer swimming or just lying in the sun. The view from the pool overlooks the Atlantic Intracoastal Waterway, which travels along the Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico coasts of the United States, running from Boston, Massachusetts, southward along the Atlantic Seaboard and around the southern tip of Florida, then following the Gulf Coast to Brownsville, Texas.

Outdoor activities include the newly remodeled 18-hole miniature golf course, shuffleboard, basketball court, and a youth playground. The resort also offers an all-denominational church service every Sunday.

Since Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, is a four-season vacation destination, any time of the year is the perfect time to visit Briarcliffe RV Resort. The Myrtle Beach area is world-renowned for its beautiful sunny weather, sandy beaches, manicured golf courses, and four-star dining. The area offers 60 miles of wide, soft sandy beaches, family-friendly attractions, and so much more.

Other amenities include horseshoe pits, shuffleboard, basketball, and a playground. Visit the clubhouse that has a large recreation hall where there are weekly activities (free bingo, ice cream socials, line dancing, and various holiday functions). If you wish to go off-site, check out Barefoot Landing—located within walking distance.

Situated less than a mile from the Atlantic Ocean and the white sand beaches of the Grand Strand, you'll find that public parking is available so you can drive right to the beach.

VIRGINIA

RESORT TYPE: Classic

LOCATION: Virginia Beach, Virginia

SEASON: Year-round

WEBSITE: indian-cove.com

LOCATED JUST THREE MILES FROM SANDBRIDGE BEACH

Spanning 5 miles of sand dunes, sea oats, and sparkling shoreline, Sandbridge offers all the seclusion of a beach hideaway just 15 miles south of Virginia Beach's bustling Resort Area. Sandbridge welcomes you to relax, unwind, and explore its peaceful seaside community at your own pace. In addition to all the entertainment and relaxation of the Atlantic Ocean, those craving even more outdoor adventure can visit the marshes and open waters of Back Bay National Wildlife Refuge and False Cape State Park for great kayaking, hiking, and fishing.

Indian Cove Resort has the best of both worlds—two minutes from the Atlantic Ocean and bordering a freshwater channel that leads to the wildlife refuge at Back Bay. The bay is famous for its largemouth bass, speckled perch, and channel catfish.

Back Bay National Wildlife Refuge was established in 1938 to provide habitat for migrating and wintering waterfowl. Its unique geographic location along the Atlantic Coast provides overlapping ranges for both northern and southern species of birds. To help guests access the bay, Indian Cove Resort offers boat rentals and a boat ramp.

But the beaches and ocean aren't all there is to the resort. Enjoy swimming in one of three pools. Pick up a game of horseshoes, shuffleboard, or relax at the recreation hall with TVs and a pool table. Meet new friends at the many organized activities such as cookouts, flea markets, and arts and crafts. The channel that abuts the resort is also a huge source of recreation for visitors to Indian Cove Resort. In addition to fishing, there's kayaking, paddleboats, and canoes, and these can be "borrowed" from the resort free of charge.

If you choose to travel without your RV, you have your choice of six rental units. These include rentals with one queen bed, bunk beds, and a bench seat that converts to a bed.

SHENANDOAH CROSSING RESORT

RESORT TYPE: Deluxe

LOCATION: Gordonsville, Virginia

SEASON: Year-round

VIRGINIA IS FOR LOVERS

Blessed with four sensational seasons, anytime you visit Virginia is the best time. And a visit to Shenandoah Crossing Resort and Country Club in Gordonsville will prove that belief. While staying in the area, you'll experience firsthand the beauty of the region. The resort features more than 1,000 acres of pristine wilderness including a 60-acre lake stocked for fishing, lush pastures, and hiking, biking, and horseback riding trails.

The deluxe RV sites pamper you and your home on wheels. The spacious pads include a summer kitchen, hot tub, gas and water hookups, and more. For a different type of adventure, rent one of the luxury yurts. Yurts are enormous, round canvas tents with central heat and air, flat-screen TVs, kitchens, bathrooms, bedrooms and everything in between.

Children and adults alike will enjoy bonfires, haunted trail walks, storytelling, and arts and crafts at Friendship Square, which also features a General Store, arcade, fitness center, sports courts and equipment rentals. Next to the Square is Watership Harbour, Shenandoah Crossing's pool and recreation area, which includes an expansive main pool, activity pool, two hot tubs and an interactive spray ground. Need to get around the resort? The property offers daily golf cart rentals, or you can bring your own with a $25 registration fee.

Nearby Nickajack Park and Makepeace Station offers horseshoes, a kids' playscape, organized excursions, games, ghost tours and more. Sallie's Stables and the Equestrian Center also offer more than two-dozen trail horses for horseback riding.

The surrounding area features the homes of the country's founding fathers. A short drive and a nice trip back in time will bring you to Monticello, the famous home of Thomas Jefferson; Montpelier, James Madison's home; and James Monroe's home, Ash Lawn. Local vineyards and wineries dot the landscape offering you the perfect day trip during your vacation.

MILLWOOD LANDING GOLF & RV RESORT

ANYTHING BUT RUN OF THE MILL

RESORT TYPE: Premier

LOCATION: Ashdown, Arkansas

SEASON: March 1 - November 1

WEBSITE: oceancanyon.com

Millwood Landing Golf & RV Resort in Ashdown is a top Arkansas RV park destination, whether it's for a weekend or an extended vacation. In addition to dozens of organized and pick-up activities, imagine playing 18 holes of golf without ever leaving the gates of the resort.

Once set up at your spacious RV site, you can choose to sit by the pool, shoot some basketball, play tennis, or let the kids play on the playground while you relax. The park amenities include two fishing ponds, a large clubhouse, sports courts, swimming pool, and horseshoe pits. Seasonally there's a restaurant onsite to make it even more of a vacation.

The resort can even host special occasions such as weddings, family reunions, retreats, birthday parties, and golf tournaments.

Millwood Landing Golf & RV is adjacent to 35,000-acre Millwood Lake. Whether you enjoy boating, fishing, swimming, picnicking, or hiking, Millwood Lake has an activity for you. With an abundance of food and varied habitats, multitudes of birds are attracted year-round to Millwood Lake. Birders from across the nation come to Millwood to get a glimpse of a wide variety of birds that include over 333 species reported within a 7.5-mile area. A flock of white pelicans make their home year-round on the lake, while bald eagles, golden-winged warblers, gulls, and several species of ducks are among the birds making an appearance throughout the year. Millwood has 12 recreation areas around the lake.

Maybe fishing in a 35,000-acre lake is intimidating, but don't fret. Enjoy two easy to access fishing ponds onsite at Millwood Landing that are stocked with a wide array of fish. The fish are always biting. You may have the opportunity to rent one of the cabins overlooking the ponds.

Offsite, you're just 35 minutes from Texarkana, 1.5 hours from Shreveport, and 2.5 hours from Little Rock.

RV CAMPING WITH A SPRINKLING OF LAKES

Woodhaven Lakes in Sublette, Illinois, does not take the plural “s” on lakes lightly. In fact, there are several man-made lakes and several small ponds within the more than 1,700 acres of the resort. Choose from Woodhaven Lake, Bass Lake, Sunset Lake, Black Oak Lake, Pine Lake, Hidden Lake, and Blue Gill Lake. With all of those lakes, know that rowboats, canoes, paddleboats, and sailboats are the best modes of transportation.

“Woodhaven’s greatest assets and what truly makes us unique are our property owners,” says Marketing Director Randy Koehler. “They all come to Woodhaven for the very same reasons—to relax, unwind, and enjoy the serenity of Woodhaven’s natural surroundings as well as the multitude of programs, services, and conveniences we provide.”

There are 15 miles of natural trails for hiking, cross-country skiing, and snowmobiling. Two pools and a beach provide a great way for families to relax and cool off during the hot summer months. Equipment rental is available for use on the many sports fields: basketball, soccer, baseball, kickball, football, shuffleboard, tennis, and horseshoes. Meet old and new friends at the Forged Rock Adventure Mini Golf course or try your hand at the long links at nearby Shady Oaks Country Club.

The year-round recreation staff provides structured recreation programs and services throughout the year. Check out the full calendar of events. The kids may join in on the Day Camp fun from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and be treated to all types of recreation, crafts, sports, and games. Put your apron away and treat yourself to a meal at the Campstove Restaurant located in the General Store. There’s also Woody’s Pizza Plus. The Nature Center houses the Northern Exposure Bait Shop and provides seasonal programming, events, farmers markets, and wildlife displays.

The Lakeview Building offers comfortable seating to just sit and relax, or take it up a notch and visit the fitness center with shower facilities.

VACATION ALONG SCENIC COUNTRY ROADS

Once you've pulled into your spacious scenic site, you'll wonder why you waited so long to visit this lovely Louisiana resort. The pine forests, the pure air, the mineral waters at Abita Springs, and the many services at Abita Springs RV Resort assure visitors of an enjoyable vacation. The resort is located in St. Tammany Parish, where the hubbub of interstate highways and city life has been transformed into scenic country roads and a relaxed atmosphere.

Enjoy some peace and quiet at the private fishing lake or take a stroll on the walking trails around the lake. Relax or exercise at the heart shaped adult pool or alongside the perfect-for-the-little-ones kiddie pool. Meet new friends at the large clubhouse with activities for all ages. Resort amenities also include a friendly staff providing Southern hospitality, wireless Internet, planned activities, and artesian springs. Nearby enjoy the area's surrounding trees and lakes, exceptional Cajun and other cuisine, as well as world-class fishing and boating. Take in the history and grace of area plantations; have fun participating in water sports, and heel-kicking Cajun dancing. Explore the lake that is home to ducks, herons, egrets, turtles, and fish.

In the charming town of Abita Springs make time to visit the Art and Farmers Market where you'll find fresh locally grown produce, wild caught seafood, local honeys, jellies, and baked goods.

Tammany Trace is a 31-mile bike path that stretches from Covington to Slidell. The trailhead sits right on the trace and is the perfect spot to go biking, running, roller blading, or to take a leisurely walk.

Your four-legged friend can enjoy the safety of the dog park, and you can plan some summer reading at the resort's library. If you travel without your rig, rent one of the comfortable cabins.

VACATION IN TRUE CAJUN COUNTRY

RESORT TYPE: Classic
LOCATION: Gibson, Louisiana
SEASON: Year-round
WEBSITE: oceancanyon.com

There aren't many Coast to Coast Resorts where you can truly catch the spirit of Cajun country. The Cajun's pleasure-loving nature expresses itself in the community festivals, dancing, and food that are integral parts of bayou life. Cajuns are known for their "joie de vivre" (joy of living), and to add excitement to their food they experiment with herbs, spices and ingredients to create some of the most flavorful dishes that people throughout North America now enjoy. All this is foremost when staying at Hideaway Ponds RV Resort in Gibson, Louisiana.

Hideaway Ponds, Ocean Canyon's newest resort, is located in the heart of Louisiana Cajun Bayou country near Morgan City, Houma, and Thibodeaux, 72 miles southwest of New Orleans. The family-oriented resort lies in a beautiful, tranquil setting with magnificent 200-year-old oak trees scattered throughout the property. And since the resort is located in the Louisiana bayou, there's plenty of water activities to enjoy. Drop a line in one of the three stocked ponds or enjoy a relaxing paddle boat ride in any of the three.

But if you've fished all you can, there are plenty of other activities to keep you involved at this Louisiana resort. In fact, there's a full-time activities director to help you fill every minute. Or you can just "set a spell" beside one of three pools: indoor, outdoor and kiddie pool, relax in the indoor Jacuzzi, or lounge in the 4,000-square-foot air-conditioned clubhouse. Enjoy shuffleboard, volleyball, billiards, ping pong, playground, and mini-golf. Your well-appointed RV site includes 50 / 30 / 20-amp electrical service, sewage and water, cable TV and Wi-Fi, cement patio pad, picnic table and barbecue pit.

Schedule a Bayou Black Air Boat Swamp Tour where you can experience Cajun's homes and lifestyles and see where Cajun seafood and wildlife are caught and trapped. Or take a walk along the nearby Lockport Elevated Wetlands Boardwalk and peek into the mysterious swamps full of moss-laden cypress trees, majestic eagles, egrets, and massive alligators.

Hideaway Ponds is a perfect complement to Abita Springs, Ocean Canyon's other resort in southern Louisiana located across Lake Pontchartrain from New Orleans.

LOCATED JUST MINUTES FROM LAKE MICHIGAN

RESORT TYPE: Deluxe

LOCATION: Grand Haven, Michigan

SEASON: May 1 – October 14

WEBSITE: outdooradventuresinc.com

The Grand Haven Resort is located just minutes from Lake Michigan and downtown Grand Haven. This “Coast Guard City USA” can be found on the eastern shore of Lake Michigan at the mouth of the Grand River, for which it’s named.

The region around Lake Michigan is often referred to as the “Third Coast” of the United States, after those of the Atlantic Ocean and the Pacific Ocean. The sand is soft and off-white, known as singing sands because of the squeaking noise it emits when walked upon.

The Grand Haven Resort is filled with beautiful scenery—from the expanse of pine and maple trees that line the campsites, to the breathtaking color change that happens every fall. It’s one of the newest resorts in the Outdoor Adventures Inc. stable of great resorts and this one has one of the best locations.

Although there are plenty of things to do offsite, once at the resort, there are amenities and activities to keep you busy. There’s an amazing miniature golf course, plus two very large pools. The resort is definitely family oriented. Tap into your inner race car driver with the go-cart track. Those who just want to relax are more than welcome to come sun bathe alongside the pool. Play putt-putt golf, explore the clubhouse and game room, or visit the pavilion playground.

In addition to great shopping and delightful dining, the city of Grand Haven is also home to the world’s largest musical fountain of its kind. Visit the fountain and stay for the synchronized water and light show accompanied with music of all varieties, which plays daily at sunset from Memorial Day through Labor Day; Fridays and Saturdays only in May and September. In August 2013, CNN Travel named Grand Haven as its No. 14 “Must See U.S. Beach” alongside Siesta Key in Florida, South Padre Island in Texas, and Papakolea Beach in Hawaii.

KALAMAZOO RESORT

A GREAT RESORT IS BECOMING GREATER

Kalamazoo Resort is currently undergoing a multi-million-dollar upgrade and expansion project. This project consists of upgrading the existing 170 campsites to 50 amp, adding an additional 72 full hook-up, 50 amp campsites, adding new park models, updating picnic tables and fire rings, installing a playground, and more.

During the upgrade, you'll still have access to everything the Kalamazoo Resort in Kalamazoo, Michigan, has offered since 2016.

A stay at this resort gives you three water options. Stroll around the pond or access Barbour Lake where you can rent paddle boats, wade, or swim. There are two docks to make it easier to launch your own flotation device or to cast your bait and hopefully catch the big one. Lounge on the sandy shore or organize a beach volleyball game.

Of course, if you prefer big water, go offsite approximately 10 minutes to Lake Michigan, the third largest of the Great Lakes and the only one located entirely within the United States. The soft, white sand is known as singing sands because of the squeaking noise it makes when walked on.

Once at your tree-covered spacious site you'll feel secure with the 24-hour security. Set up at your site and either put up your lawn chairs or go exploring. You could start your exploration at the All Seasons Lodge. Gather with friends and family around the flat-screen TV, sit in front of a roaring fire, or enjoy a pickup basketball game. Play volleyball or horseshoes

And there's more. The activities department will keep you busy with a variety of interesting activities, including live entertainment. Pick up firewood and eat s'mores to your heart's content at your RV site. There's also putt-putt golf, a playground, and an outdoor pool. If you need to add to your pantry, shop at the general store.

LAKE OF THE NORTH

BACK TO NATURE AT LAKE GEORGE

RESORT TYPE: Premier

LOCATION: West Branch, Michigan

SEASON: May 1 - October 1

WEBSITE: outdooradventuresinc.com

Outdoor Adventure's Lake of the North Resort and Campground is located on beautiful Lake George near the historic city of West Branch, Michigan. The quiet, back-to-nature atmosphere of Lake of the North is a great place for those who love camping in the outdoors. Nearby, you can enjoy outlet shopping, antiquing, arts and crafts, festivals, a summer music series, two 18-hole public golf courses, Seney Wildlife Refuge, fishing, hunting, and much more.

But you don't need to go offsite to have a wonderful "stay-cation" at Lake of the North Resort. Depending on whatever lifestyle you want to pursue, you can have it here. Set up your lounge chairs on your spacious site and chill, or take advantage of beautiful Lake George, an all-sports lake. Rent a boat, go fishing, go for a swim, or sit on the resort's private beach and enjoy the fun and the sun.

Of course, if you want to meet your fellow RVers, join in one or more of the staff's planned activities. Join your fellow campers and the staff for a community bonfire. Make new friends and more memories. And the s'mores are pretty awesome, too. Take your family to the onsite putt-putt course or play horseshoes or volleyball. Stop in the resort store for some forgotten items or for a snack.

Check out what's happening at the pavilion. You might find tie-dying outside, an auction inside, someone playing video games, or a song on the jukebox. Don't hesitate to join in the fun.

Offsite, take a hike or bike on the 13.6-mile Ogemaw Hills Pathway. If you're an off-road vehicle enthusiast, then Ogemaw County has something for you—an ordinance that allows ORV riders to ride on streets and highways to and from the extensive trail system near the resort.

LAKE SHORE RESORT

RESORT TYPE: Premier

LOCATION: Davison, Michigan

SEASON: Year-round

WEBSITE: outdooradventuresinc.com

ENJOY THE $1 MILLION INDOOR POOL RENOVATION

Although there's lots more to love about Outdoor Adventures' Lake Shore Resort, a visit to enjoy the recent $1 million renovation of the indoor pool is a must. The project consisted of rebuilding the entire structure and building a new pool, hot tub, and restrooms at this Premier resort in Davison, Michigan.

In addition to the new pool, the resort offers camping and cabins in a beautiful natural setting of nature trails and a spring-fed lake. There's lots to do with water including the Fun Zone Water Park with a lazy river and splash pad, indoor and outdoor heated pools, and the private lake with beach area and beach pavilion. Explore the lake in a variety of ways: rowboat, canoe, kayak, paddle boat, and / or swimming. Before and after being lakeside, enjoy the family-oriented clubhouse and pavilion, or the lounge for grown-ups.

Other onsite activities include putt-putt golf, children's playground, fitness rooms, horseshoes, tennis courts, basketball courts, shuffleboard, and volleyball.

Organized activities include outdoor team games, card parties, holiday dinners, arcades, and karaoke nights. If you're lucky enough to visit in winter, try ice skating on the lake.

There are lots of ways to meet old and new friends at the picnic area with grills. Enjoy an evening around one of the community fire pits, or grab a quick bite to eat at the snack bar, and stock up at the general store.

Although there's no reason you'd ever want to leave the resort, nearby you'll find an old-fashioned cider mill, riding stable, and plenty of shopping and dining venues. A little further away is Flint — just 10 miles east. Michigan's "Little Bavaria," Frankenmuth, is only 34 miles from the resort for a delightful day trip. Within driving distance, visit Crossroads Village, take a ride on the narrow-gauge Huckleberry Railroad steam locomotive or cruise Mott Lake aboard the Genessee Belle paddle-wheeler.

MT. PLEASANT RESORT

LOCATION: Mt. Pleasant, Michigan

SEASON: Year-round

WEBSITE: outdooradventuresinc.com

THIS REGION IS RICH WITH NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE

Once in Mt. Pleasant, you'll understand why this region was so popular to Native American peoples throughout the centuries. Add to that the attraction of championship golf courses, specialty shops, nearby Soaring Eagle Casino, and scenic parks in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, and it's a great destination for today's RVers.

Of course, you don't have to leave the resort to enjoy water sports. You'll find two ponds ready for adventure. Bring your fishing equipment and catch and release on one pond and canoe or kayak on the other.

Introduce yourself to the activities staff and enjoy the full activities calendar. Meet old and new friends at the resort's game room or play horseshoes, basketball, and volleyball. Relax at the community fire pit and make some s'mores. Get your inner child fulfilled at the playground and play and swim at the outdoor pool and hot tub. If you forget the salt, visit the camp store for any provisions you may need. Your furry friend can exercise in the dog park and wade or swim in one of the ponds. If you've traveled without your rig, stay in one of 10 cabins. And if you need to store your RV when not at the resort, there's secure RV storage.

For adventure on the water, take a scenic canoe trip down the winding Chippewa River, which is a pleasant scenic river that winds through the fields and forests of Michigan's heartland. Tour Deerfield Nature Park where you'll enjoy a covered bridge and two swinging bridges. Come to play at one of their two 18-hole disc golf courses.

If history is your passion, visit the Zübiwing Center, which is a museum and cultural center built to share the history of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan. Zübiwing means "By the River."

Mt. Pleasant's Central Michigan University is also the venue for art shows, theater, musical performances, and university sporting events.

RIFLE RIVER RESORT

A FULL-SERVICE RESORT IN A SECLUDED SETTING

RESORT TYPE: Premier

LOCATION: Sterling, Michigan

SEASON: May – October

WEBSITE: www.outdooradventuresinc.com/rifle-river

Outdoor Adventures' Rifle River Resort Campground in Sterling offers a beautiful, quiet, and secluded setting in the Saginaw lowlands of eastern Michigan. Come and enjoy this full-service resort offering tons of conveniences for the entire family, while maintaining the rustic appeal of the great outdoors.

RVing and camping in this area of Michigan is a glorious experience, but camping next to a river doubles the fun. The Rifle River was once a logging river but is now primarily used for recreation. It's a popular river for tubing and canoeing with no portages or dams with a depth of 18 inches to 5 feet. Add to your enjoyment by planning a river trip. Be it in a canoe or a tube, the staff can help you with your adventure. Stop by the store and reserve a time. The river and resort pond provide opportunities to fish.

At the end of a long day on the river, the outdoor heated pool and hot tub provide great options for unwinding. Kick back and relax and get ready for the next day's adventure. There's also a private pond with a beach.

Show off your volleyball or horseshoe skills; grab some friends or the person next to you and start a game. Stop by the pavilion for fun with the activities staff, a pickup game of basketball or a game of washers. Have fun at the shuffleboard court. Watch the activities schedule to see when the DJ will be there or when there is an auction scheduled. There are so many planned activities.

If sitting back and watching those around you is more your style, grab a chair and a spot by the river. It's always fun to talk to those on the river while you kick back and enjoy the beautiful day. If you travel without your rig, rent one of the rental units so you don't miss any of the action.

ALL YEAR ROUND IS THE BEST TIME TO VISIT

Saginaw Bay Resort and Campground in Standish, Michigan, offers a year-round pleasant family atmosphere. Once onsite, park your rig in a spacious shaded campsite or rent one of 20 cabins, 10 of which were built in 2017.

Once settled, take out your camp chairs and set a spell or tour the resort. You'll find a general store, a Snack Shack, and an Ice Cream Shop. If you're hungry, choose from their menu of hot dogs, hamburgers, and top that off with ice cream: cones, sundaes, or floats.

There's plenty to see and do including hiking trails, playground, putt-putt golf course, golf practice tee, basketball court, horseshoes, badminton, and volleyball. Indoor and outdoor heated pool and hot tubs means there's swimming during all seasons. Inside activities include an adult lounge, clubhouse, pavilion, and game room.

Bring your fishing gear to catch the big one in Lil Sag

Bay Lake. If you're visiting in August, get in on the Fishing Frenzy, which is a contest for both kids and adults. You can fish; you can swim; you can kayak; and you can float.

The adult lounge, clubhouse, and pavilion will give you opportunities to meet old friends and make new ones. There's also a game room and fitness room.

If you prefer to add more activity to your daily schedule, check out the extensive list of theme days. These include Summer Fun, Down on the Farm, Out of This World, Safari, Independence, Mardi Gras, Hawaiian, Mexican Fiesta, Carnival, and Magic / Vegas.

At Saginaw Bay Resort, you're only minutes from golf courses, marinas, beaches, factory outlet shopping, and Saganing Eagles Landing Casino. The casino features more than 800 slot machines and virtual games on the gaming floor. Traditional table games such as blackjack and roulette are offered through a virtual experience.

WILDERNESS RESORT

GET IN TOUCH WITH NATURE AT THIS BEAUTIFUL RESORT

RESORT TYPE: Premier

LOCATION: Omer, Michigan

SEASON: May 12 - October 9

WEBSITE: outdooradventuresinc.com

When Outdoor Adventures purchased this property in 1996, it was known as Sunshine Valley Campground. Although there's still sunshine in the valley, the name Wilderness is much more fitting. The resort is truly a place where you can get in touch with nature.

With hundreds of spacious campsites, plus cabinette and park model rental units, there's a place for you whether you're traveling with or without your RV. Once onsite, you can choose from a variety of activities. Take a dip in the hot tub, go for a swim in the pool, throw horseshoes, or play shuffleboard, basketball, and badminton. In addition, there are many activities planned by the energetic staff. Go for a bike ride, check out the game room or adult lounge, or meet up with friends at the community fire pit. On your tour around the resort, make sure to stop by and visit the bear. He's become quite the celebrity.

Although Wilderness Resort is located in Omer, you won't find a busy downtown because Omer is quite small. In fact there is a sign on the U.S. Highway 23 that proclaims the town as Michigan's Smallest City. It's actually the second smallest city in the state, as of the 2021 census, with the population of 313.

If you're fortunate to be in the area in spring, head to the nearby Ridle River to engage in the sport of sucker fishing. The river was once a logging river during the Michigan forest boom at the turn of the 20th century. Rifle River is now primarily used for recreation, and is a state-designated natural river, popular for canoeing and having the best white sucker runs in the state of Michigan.

Head east and enjoy the water of Lake Huron, the second-largest of the Great Lakes by surface area. Covering almost 23,000 square miles, it is the fifth-largest freshwater lake on Earth.

HAM LAKE RESORT

MINUTES FROM THE TWIN CITIES

RESORT TYPE: Deluxe
LOCATION: Ham Lake, Minnesota
SEASON: May 1 - October 22
WEBSITE: travelresorts.com

The newest resort in the Travel Resorts of the Midwest portfolio, Ham Lake is a refreshing addition for resort camping in Minnesota. Located just 30 minutes from the Twin Cities, Ham Lake is perfect for a quick weekend getaway or an extended relaxing vacation.

A boat dock and fishing pier provide access to Ham Lake, which is 154 acres in area. According to the Department of Natural Resources, largemouth bass bring most anglers to Ham Lake. Bluegills are abundant, but plan on them being small to average sized.

So when planning your visit, bring along your fishing gear and tag along your boat. But, if you're stuck without a boat, rent one of the resort's canoes and tour the waterway.

There are numerous walking and hiking trails. Come kayak, canoe, or fish on the beautiful, fully stocked lake. The resort has more than 100 RV sites and the majority have 50-amp hook-ups. Meet new friends around the community firepit. Take your furry friend to the dog run to get the wiggles out. Other amenities include a sandy beach and a pavilion. This resort has something you've probably never encountered at a resort—a petting zoo. If you're traveling without your rig, rent one of the resort's cabins.

Offsite, there are so many things to do and see near Ham Lake Resort. Go horseback riding, visit the beautiful state parks, take the kids to Bunker Beach waterpark, or spend the day sipping wine at Willow Tree Winery.

Enjoy nearby attractions such as Majestic Oaks Golf. Go shopping at the Mall of America and try not to get lost. If you need more animals, check out Como Zoo and Conservatory. In addition to animals there are tons of rides, places to eat, various gardens and more. Stroll through Minnesota Sculpture Garden. Or visit one of the many more attractions in the Twin Cities.

premier

RESORT TYPE: Premier

LOCATION: Hinckley, Minnesota

SEASON: May 1 – October 20

WEBSITE: midwestoutdoorresorts.com/st-croix

A RIVER RUNS BY THIS MINNESOTA RESORT

It's time to grab your paddle and kayak or canoe and head to the St. Croix and Namekagon rivers. Together they form the St. Croix National Scenic Riverway, offering more than 200 miles of clean water that glides and rushes through a forested landscape. It's also a great place for anglers and is home to 19 species of fish including walleye, smallmouth bass, sauger, muskellunge, northern pike, and lake sturgeon. Fortunately for RVers staying at the St. Croix River Resort in Hinckley, they can enjoy the river because it runs adjacent to this beautiful resort.

It's not just the river that is a highlight of the resort. The spacious cul-de-sac campsites provide privacy not found elsewhere. There are also a number of cabins available for rent—all with very unique names. These include Annie Oakley, Davy Crockett, Meriwether Lewis, and Sacajawea, to name a few. In addition to the unusually private campsites, enjoy the swimming pool, horseshoes, volleyball, badminton, and a playground.

A conveniently located clubhouse and Wi-Fi hotspot also features a convenience store. Enjoy quiet relaxation or take part in planned children and family activities on the weekends. Plan a picnic with the new friends you've made during your stay in the covered pavilion, and then end your day with a glowing campfire while roasting marshmallows.

If you've brought your ATV, follow the marked ATV trail to enjoy miles of fun. There are also walking / hiking trails for your pleasure.

Nearby, visit Minnesota's largest state park: St. Croix State Park, with over 34,000 acres and two great rivers. Explore the rivers by canoe or with a fishing pole. Swim at Lake Clayton or climb a fire tower. Many species of birds thrive here: warblers, flycatchers, eagles, owls, and osprey are common along the St. Croix. Wildlife includes black bear, bobcats, coyotes, beaver, raccoons, gray and red fox, and deer.

A BEAUTIFUL RESORT ON A PRIVATE BAYOU

Once you pull your rig into the beautiful TLC Wolf River Resort in Pass Christian, Mississippi, you'll understand why the staff refers to the resort as "where the water meets the land". Because the lovely Wolf River is adjacent to the resort, you can plan much of your activities around water adventures. Bring your boat and access the boat launch. Swim or propel your own canoe or kayak, or bring your fishing gear and try to catch the big one. Other activities include swimming and wading pools, mini-golf, relaxing in the comfortable clubhouse, and a brand new kids playground with a pavilion where mom and dad can relax while the kids play.

Just as the name suggests, plan on being treated with TLC— tender loving care—while staying here. TLC Wolf River Resort is just minutes from the Gulf of Mexico and 26 miles of sugar white sand beaches. Stroll along the beach while a cool gulf breeze caresses you, have a picnic, or catch some excitement aboard one of the many charter fishing boats. Afterward, light up the night in one of the 13 casinos located along the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

This southern campground has more than a hundred full hook-up sites, Wi-Fi, and laundry. If you travel without your rig, rent one of the travel trailer and fifth-wheel rental units.

Located about 11 miles off the Mississippi Coast are some of the last undeveloped barrier islands in America. These exquisite sand islands offer visitors the first high quality beaches for swimming and shelling east of New Orleans.

The Ship Island Ferry makes the round trip to Ship Island on a 22-mile jaunt over beautiful waters where bottle-nosed dolphins can often be seen surfacing near the boats along the way. One of the top attractions is Fort Massachusetts built around 1866. Guided tours are available.

BRANSON RIDGE RV RESORT

ENTERTAINMENT IN THE HEART OF THE OZARKS

When you head your RV toward Branson, Missouri, you probably have entertainment in mind. With more than 100 live shows, three beautiful lakes, championship golf courses, and more than 250 places to dine, you can have a new experience every day. But when you're tired and are ready to leave the bright lights behind, relax at nearby Branson Ridge RV Resort.

Once onsite, park in your spacious RV site with lush views. Choose from pull-through full hook-up sites with 50-amp electric, water, sewer, and cable TV. Showers and restrooms are conveniently located. Use your site as a jumping off place to visit all Branson has to offer, or just relax and take in the views. There's plenty to do at the resort. Swim in one of the three pools--two are outdoor and one is indoor. Work off any kinks you may have from traveling at the sports court or meet new friends at the covered outdoor pavilion.

You can also stay in contact with the outside world with campground-wide wireless internet access. If you're traveling without your rig or wish to stay in a cabin or motel room, Branson Ridge RV Resort can accommodate you. All of the rental units are furnished with updated amenities and televisions. Family units feature full baths and fully equipped kitchens. Hang up your apron and dine at the seasonal restaurant facility or at Hunt Brother's Pizza. If you've forgotten anything, just swing by the country store.

When you're recharged, head out to explore Branson and nearby environs. The beautiful lakes offer all sorts of watersports. There's horseback riding, mini golf, ziplining, spas, and great shopping. Adults will enjoy nearby wineries that feature grapes grown in the verdant region.

Plan to spend one or two days at Silver Dollar City. Stop and watch craftsmen creating everything from glass items to leather goods, from pottery to candy, and from baked goods to items created by the theme park's own blacksmith.

TURN-OF-THE-CENTURY FARM IS NOW A 500-PLUS ACRE UPSCALE RESORT

"Because memories aren't made in front of the TV!" This saying is especially true at Lost Valley Lake Resort in Owensville, Missouri. The resort concentrates on providing activities and amenities for every personality and every age. Where else have you had your choice of visiting a horse stable for an afternoon ride or making an appointment at a spa for a facial or massage? On another day arrange to meet friends in the Cellar for a game of cards. It's all that and more.

The resort's 24-hour security provides a safe and fun environment for you and your family. With 537 beautiful acres, it's easy to grab a lawn chair and enjoy the outdoors. But if tranquility isn't what you came for, you only have to join in some of the activities.

The Lake Expo is a 44,000-square-foot building of fun. It includes an arcade, indoor mini golf, basketball, volleyball, shuffleboard, pool table, ballroom, adult lounge, movie theater, day spa, fitness center, and meeting and rental rooms. Just outside are tennis courts and the new pool with sun deck and cabana snack bar.

While at the resort there's no need to cook. Take off your apron and put down your spatula and visit the Lost Valley Grill. Dine on everything from hush puppies, to supreme pizza, to an extensive breakfast menu.

If you love horses and riding, visit the stables and take a trail ride, or ride on an equestrian obstacles course. Take a hayride or go to a bonfire. You're also invited to ride your own horse at the resort.

At the aquatic center, take a dip in one of two heated pools. Don't forget your fishing gear because there are two large lakes and three fishing ponds stocked with 6 tons of fish yearly. No license required. Fish 365 days for bass, catfish, crappie, trout, blue gill, and sunfish. Rent paddle boats, kayaks, canoes, and Jon boats.

No matter what you choose to do, Lost Valley Lake Resort is definitely a destination resort.

FIND THE TREASURE IN BRANSON

Treasure Lake RV Resort in Branson, Missouri, calls itself a premier large RV resort in Missouri and backs it up. The Missouri Association of RV Parks & Campgrounds has awarded the resort the “Large Park of the Year” award every year since 2016.

Branson has been called the Midwest’s Las Vegas due to the city’s entertainment variety. The resort is within walking distance to the Shoji Tabuchi Theater, Hamner Theater, Pierce Arrow Theater, and the IMAX. The IMAX complex houses a six-story movie screen, the Little Opry Theater, the Elite Cinema III, numerous shops, a food court, and McFarlain’s restaurant.

But you don’t have to leave the resort to have fun because there’s lots to do onsite. The spacious clubhouse is used for activities, shows, and the Rock n Roll Café. See movies on the big-screen media room with surround sound. Relax and get wet in one or both of the two pools—one is a huge outdoor pool and the other is a heated indoor pool. Take on all comers playing bocce ball, horseshoes, croquet, and frisbee golf. While keeping in touch via park-wide Wi-Fi, your kids can play on the playground.

With five bathhouses, a country store, laundry facilities, and concession stand, you never have to leave the security of the resort. Another way to feel secure is the 24-hour security and the paved walking areas. Take off your apron and dine at the Rock n Roll Café. Check out their different specials every day. Enjoy the regular Friday and Saturday fish and shrimp.

You can also put on your walking shoes and dine at Golden Corral, IHOP, Red Lobster, Cracker Barrel, The Olive Garden, Paradise Grill, and Little Hacienda that are close to the resort.

If you travel without your rig, rent one of the 50-plus rental units including trailers, park models, a yurt, a duplex, and motel room style rentals.

ON THE SHORES OF GRAND LAKE O' THE CHEROKEES

Eagles Landing Resort is located on Grand Lake O' the Cherokees, which covers 46,500 acres with a lot to offer. There are five state parks around the winding, scenic shoreline, as well as many privately operated commercial marinas, restaurants, and fishing guides. Native fish species found in the lake include large-mouth bass, white bass, channel catfish, crappie, and bluegill.

But there are plenty of amenities onsite at this beautiful resort. These include an 18-hole mini-golf course, horseshoes, playground, pickle-ball court, soccer, canoes, and kayaking. Relax at the koi pond. Forget something? Replenish supplies at the country store. Eagles Landing Resort also boasts the largest beach entry pool in eastern Oklahoma. Get your exercise by biking and hiking.

From Eagles Landing, campers are treated to an enchanting view of the lighted 2,548-foot-long, 29-foot-wide, two-lane "Sailboat Bridge." The bridge deck curves upward in a parabolic arch about 40 feet higher at the center than at the ends. Tall sailboats can pass underneath. In 1939 the design received national recognition from the American Institute of Steel Construction.

Catch the big one at the fishing pond and use the heated fishing dock and fish cleaning station for your catch. Pull your boat into one of the boat slips and use the ramp to put in. You can also store your boat or your RV at the resort.

Live the resort life in the recently remodeled cabins. Pick between one-bedroom cabins, two-bedroom cabins, and a suite cabin, or hook up with the range of RV sites which include pull-through sites, full hook-up sites, and nearly 100 lakefront sites

Under new ownership, the owners have upgraded the property and have a great team waiting to welcome your family. The remodeled cabins are a home away from home for guests and their visitors.

TEXOMA SHORES RESORT

WHERE TO STAY AND PLAY IN SOUTH-CENTRAL OKLAHOMA

With more than a mile of shoreline on Lake Texoma, known as the Striper Capital of the World, Texoma Shores Resort sits on one of the best spots for reeling in the distinctively striped bass. Locally occurring minerals in the lake provide heperfect conditions for the banded rockfish to flourish. Rippling through both Oklahoma and Texas, the blue-green reservoir brims with stripers as well as largemouth, spotted and white bass, catfish and crappie.

Not surprisingly, Lake Texoma is more than just a mecca for fisher folk. Each year the region draws some six million visitors to take advantage of the vast 89,000-acre waterway with their sailboats, windsurfers, speedboats, personal watercraft and swimming floats.

For its part, Texoma Shores Resort makes the most of this recreational paradise with a fishing pier, a boat ramp, boat slips and a swimming beach. Parent company Ocean Canyon Properties recently revamped this former fishing camp into an idyllic RV destination with scenic views from everywhere on the property.

Start off your stay by saying hi to the friendly staff at the clubhouse, where you can catch a game on the 55-inch TV and find out about upcoming activities, from potlucks to poker nights. Then head outside to explore the playgrounds, picnic areas, basketball and volleyball courts, and acres of open land.

For RV travelers, the resort recently upgraded and leveled many of the 38 tree-shaded campsites, including some handy pull-throughs. Before calling it a day back at your home on wheels, take a relaxing hot shower in the washroom.

Whether you arrive in a self-contained rig or stay in a cottage or a suite, the welcoming staff at Texoma Shores will keep you abreast of all the fun things to do in the area, from guided striper fishing excursions to visits to Fort Washita, a national historic landmark not far from the resort.

TRES RIOS RV RESORT

THE NAME SAYS IT ALL

RESORT TYPE: Premier
LOCATION: Glen Rose, Texas
SEASON: Year-round
WEBSITE: oceancanyon.com

Tres Rios is named for the three Texas rivers that converge on the resort's southern point — the Brazos River, Paluxy River, and Squaw Creek. When choosing a destination, RVers look for a variety of options. If the RVer is an angler, a canoer, a boater, or just enjoys water activities, then nearby water is a must. Weather is always a consideration. If the RVer is active, then the number of nearby activities is important. Tres Rios RV Resort meets and exceeds all of those wants.

The Paluxy is known for numerous dinosaur footprints found in its bed near Glen Rose. Searching for fossils is an interesting hobby that you can certainly enjoy here. The Brazos is popular for tubing, kayaking, and canoeing. Not only are the waters great for fishing - the Brazos River is home to 44 fish species - the area is a magnet for a large number of bird species including blue herons and bald eagles. Warblers, cranes, plovers, peregrine falcons, woodpeckers, and sandpipers are present throughout the year. Join other RVers bird watching.

The resort is known for its special events and local area events such as the annual music festival, Blue Bonnet Festival, and regularly scheduled arts, crafts, and antique shows. The resort has 50 years of history as a YMCA summer camp.

Amenities are numerous including free Wi-Fi, an outdoor swimming pool, and walking trails. If you're worried about the kids getting bored, worry no more. Sign them up for the Kids Club. Meet new friends playing basketball, horseshoes, volleyball, bingo, and many other planned activities.

In addition to full hook-up RV sites, there are also large pull-through sites. Take advantage of the RV storage so you can plan to visit again. Traveling without a rig? Rent one of the riverside cabins.

Your four-legged friend has not been left out. Enjoy the Tres Rios Bark Park.

LAKE HAVASU RV PARK

RESORT TYPE: Deluxe

LOCATION: Lake Havasu City, Arizona

SEASON: September 15 - May 14

WEBSITE: coloradoriveradventures.com

THE LURE OF A DESERT LAKE DRAWS VISITORS

If your idea of being in the desert is sand, sand, and more sand, then head your rig to Lake Havasu, Arizona, and discover this gorgeous resort set alongside what can only be referred to as an oasis. Lake Havasu is a fishing paradise and stretches more than 29 miles from “the sand bar” in the north to Parker Dam in the south. Striped bass and channel catfish are abundant, but you can also catch smallmouth bass, bluegill, and strippers.

With more than 300 days of sunshine a year—and a unique mix of tranquil waters, rugged mountains, and tons of fun— it’s hard to stay inside. Everywhere you look, folks are hiking, biking, boating, fishing, golfing, off roading, shopping, dining, and enjoying seasonal events.

Nearby, if you’ve never been to London, you’ll want to visit a little bit of Great Britain in Lake Havasu City by visiting Arizona’s London Bridge. The bridge was built in the 1830s and formerly spanned the River Thames in London, England. It was dismantled in 1967 and relocated to Arizona. Lake Havasu hosts watersports such as fishing, water skiing, kayaking, and houseboating, and entices visitors to the area. It’s also the perfect getaway for RVers, which is why Colorado River Adventures, parent company of Lake Havasu RV Park, choose this location for one of their eight resorts.

Although there are many nearby attractions, you don’t have to leave the park to have a wonderful time under the sun. The resort’s sites are laid out with wide paved roads. Two pools, clubhouse, recreation hall, laundry, and restrooms are centrally located. A playground, pet walking area, shuffleboard, and horseshoes are also available.

Once you are settled in, prepare yourself for enough park extras and attractions to fill your days with fun, adventure, beauty, and relaxation. There are plenty of opportunities to swim, boat, waterski, kayak, or even take a seaplane ride.

Most of the resort sites offers cement slabs for outdoor living and some have views of the river. Whether you prefer 30-amp or 50-amp, you're covered.

The area is known for 360 days of sunshine a year, which allows numerous outdoor recreation activities year-round. This makes Sunrise Adventures – Ridgeview one of the premier RV destinations in the country. In addition to the Colorado River, you also have the opportunity to play on the pristine waters of Lake Mohave that is located minutes north of the resort. With the abundance of water play space on the Colorado River and Lake Mohave, there are a wide variety of activities available.

YUMA LAKES RESORT

SOAK IN THE BLUE SKIES AND SUN THAT SHINES 310 DAYS A YEAR

RESORT TYPE: Deluxe

LOCATION: Yuma, Arizona

SEASON: September 15 - May 15

WEBSITE: coloradoriveradventures.com

Yuma Lakes Resort is tailor-made for snow birds who want to escape freezing winter temperatures. Once at the resort, you're just minutes from Mexico. It's easy to make a day trip into Mexico where you can immerse yourself in the colorful culture, go shopping, or take in the sights.

But you'll first want to also explore all that Yuma Lakes Resort has to offer. Relax at the spacious clubhouse to meet new and old friends. From the planned breakfasts and dinners to the ice-cream socials, there's always something inviting to do including bingo, cards, and pool tournaments.

Slip into the pool to cool off. It's heated so it's a perfect way to enjoy fun in the sun. Relax in the Jacuzzi. If you prefer something a little more exerting, go for a hike. Just outside the gates, you'll find miles of mountain and desert trails. It's also a great place to ride an ATV.

Play shuffleboard, bocce ball, or miniature golf—all secure knowing there's 24-hour security.

Because Yuma was the safest spot to cross the Colorado River, all roads led to Yuma for travelers from Spanish explorers to Okies fleeing the Dust Bowl. You, too, can take advantage of the proximity to the river, using Yuma Lakes Resort as a jumping off place. Take a jet boat narrated tour of historic sites along the river or go a little slower and tour the area on a sternwheeler. There are also birding and photography tours.

The town of Yuma with its museums and historic parks is only a short distance away. With 13 challenging golf courses, Golf Digest has ranked Yuma the 7th best city in the U.S. for golf.

SUNSHINE, SAND & WATER, WATER EVERYWHERE

If you're an RVer who loves all things water, head your RV to the California side of the Colorado River and pull your rig into Emerald Cove Resort in Earp, California. Sites include a variety of terrains including right on the white sandy beaches of the Colorado River. Activities, of course, center around the river that glides through the desert terrain—the perfect place for water-skiing, inner-tube rides, and fishing.

With more than 300 days of sunshine a year—and a unique mix of tranquil waters, rugged mountains, and tons of fun—it's hard to stay inside. Everywhere you look, folks are hiking, biking, boating, fishing, golfing, off-roading, and enjoying seasonal events. Touring, dining, and shopping at nearby Lake Havasu can give you a break from non-stop fun on the water. While there, you can also visit the city's transplanted historic London Bridge.

At Emerald Cove, the Colorado River is not the only place where you can get wet. Enjoy two covered Olympic-sized swimming pools, two Jacuzzis, and wading pools for the kids. The pools are heated in the winter. Poolside is a bar and restaurant with outside seating. Pool games and contests for the kids and water volleyball games for the adults are organized.

The fully staffed River Rats Kids Club at Emerald Cove Resort is the perfect way to keep your kids busy while you relax and enjoy some adult time. Kids are supervised by the staff and will have their choice to do artwork, beading, woodwork, play X-Box games, enjoy video games in the new arcade, or one of many other planned activities. You can also exercise your pet at the riverfront dog park with beach access and another full dog park.

If golf is your game, check out the newly remodeled 18-hole mini-golf course, while across the street is a 9-hole golf course at Jack Ass Flats. The 9-hole course is named for the wild burros that wander the area around Emerald Cove. Be sure to watch out for them when driving near the resort.

FISHERMAN'S RETREAT

CASCADE MEADOWS RV RESORT

RESORT TYPE: Deluxe

LOCATION: La Pine, Oregon

SEASON: Year-round

WEBSITE: soundpacificrv.com/cascade-meadows

SURROUNDED BY BREATHTAKINGLY HIGH PEAKS

Cascade Meadows has it all—the high and the low, the wet and the wild. The high consists of the views of 9,000-plus foot Mount Bachelor and the Three Sisters Mountain Range, which rises majestically nearby at more than 10,000 feet in elevation. The low is the rolling meadow on which the resort rests—although it's still more than 4,000 feet high. More than 150 crystal clear fishing lakes that yield prize steelhead and trout make up the wet, and the wild can be found on the endless miles of wilderness hiking and biking trails throughout the mountains and Deschutes National Forest.

Camping at Cascade Meadow places you in a recreational area that gives you access to hundreds of miles of hiking and biking trails and drive off access to many ATV and snowmobile trails. You will not run out of things to do in this area: fishing, mountain biking, hiking and boating, hunting, skiing, watersports, and fine dining. In the summertime campers enjoy the golf courses in the area and the nearby beautiful lakes.

Onsite you'll find a luxurious pool and spa, comfortable clubhouse, horseshoes, free Wi-Fi, and conveniently located showers, restrooms and laundry facilities. There's a well-appointed playground and a sports court with basketball and pickleball setups. All sites are 70-foot pull throughs and the green grass areas between the sites have picnic tables where members can enjoy a meal outside, sit around and play cards, talk or daydream. There's just nothing like the fresh air at 4,200 feet.

The resort is 22 miles south of Bend, 50 miles to the town of Sisters—a must-see experience—and 28 miles from Mount Bachelor Ski Resort with its sightseeing chairlift ride to the summit available year-round. In summer, you'll find more than 20 golf courses in the area. Quail Run Golf Course is just three miles from the resort.

NESKOWIN CREEK RV RESORT

The beach is less than a mile down the road, so you have easy access while staying at Neskowin Creek RV Resort in Neskowin, Oregon. But the resort provides plenty of activities and amenities to keep you busy onsite.

Once you drive your rig onto the resort you'll feel safe with 24-hour security and a gated access. Relax after a day of driving by enjoying the indoor pool and hot tub and let your pooch exercise at the resort's dog run. Meet new and old friends at the sports courts and scheduled activities, and enjoy regularly scheduled potlucks. There's a playground and game room available in the clubhouse for the kids or grandkids. The courteous and helpful staff are there to make your stay safe and comfortable.

Many of the RVers go fishing at the nearby ocean during their stay. And, if you're tired of cooking, nearby restaurants serve up local delicacies.

Drive into Neskowin and visit Neskowin Beach State Recreation Site. A path leads from the recreation site down to the beach near the town's famous Proposal Rock. Trails weave to the top of the rock, which provides an excellent view of surrounding tidelands. The name comes from the legend of Charley and Della. One day in the late 1800s, these star-crossed lovers headed out to a basalt sea stack above the Pacific Ocean and decided to get married. Della's mom was thrilled and named the landmark "Proposal Rock."

Golf is also popular in the town of Neskowin, which has two enjoyable 9-hole golf courses in the center of town. Dazzling ocean coastline provides the backdrop for these two courses, which are set among marshlands and rolling, verdant pastures.

Chinook Winds Casino is conveniently located in nearby Lincoln City for a fun night out.

GORGEOUS WATERFRONT RV RESORT

Once onsite at the family owned and operated resort in Rockaway Beach, Oregon, you'll be surrounded by beauty at Paradise Cove RV Resort and Marina. And it's truly a paradise because RVers catch a view of the Pacific Ocean from their lovely site.

RVers have plenty of space at each site, plus 30- or 50-amp electric, water, sewer outlets, and picnic tables. There's free Wi-Fi and HD satellite TV available in the lower clubhouse. Meet new and old friends at one of the three clubhouses and indoor recreation room with basketball and billiards.

If you've traveled without your rig, rent one of two new deluxe cabins that sleeps four. Visit nearby Rockaway Beach with seven miles of sandy beaches, restaurants serving delicious fare, and eclectic shops full of unique treasures. The town also hosts some of the greatest family festivals on the Oregon Coast, and with Twin Rocks towering in the background, the view is second to none.

If you brought your boat with you, there are several boat ramps that make it easy and convenient to spend an afternoon fishing or just soaking up the sun. Lake Lytle is the largest lake—spanning 69 acres and stocked each March with rainbow trout. The lake is also home to largemouth bass, sunfish, and catfish.

The birds love it here, too. During the summer migration months, more than 200 different species of birds can be spotted along the sandy beach.

Tide pooling offers a rare chance to see below the ocean's surface without having to get in the water. A low or minus tide is the best time to trek out to the rockier parts of the beach and peek into the pools of water to catch a glimpse of what's living down there.

Don't forget to pack your swimsuit so you can enjoy the onsite swimming pool or nearby ocean.

If you're traveling without your rig, there are three cabins and a yurt onsite. These are perfect for a getaway with friends or family who don't have RVs. Nearby Ocean City State Park features ocean beach, dunes, and dense thickets of shore pine. Migratory birds are a popular attraction.

Within a short drive, try your luck at Quinault Beach Resort Casino, a Vegas-style casino with more than 700 slot machines, a poker room, and 12 table games. In the area, there are more than 50 miles of pristine beaches.

If you drive further, explore Grays Harbor National Wildlife Refuge, located within Grays Harbor. It's one of four major staging areas for migrating shorebirds in the Pacific Flyway. Up to one million shorebirds gather here in spring and fall to feed and rest. As many as 24 species of shorebirds use Grays Harbor National Wildlife Refuge.

With four miles of beach walking and water on three sides, Damon Point is one of the best places to hike and view wildlife in the North Beach area of Washington's Pacific Coast. Start your walk just south of the RV campground. Damon Point is a textbook example of accreted land and is one of the few remaining nesting sites of the snowy plover.

OLD AMERICAN KAMPGROUND

WATERSPORTS REIGN SUPREME

If you love water and a great climate, then head your rig to Old American Kampground in Newport, Washington. The nearby Pend Oreille River is one of the few U.S. rivers that flows north, complete with a marina and opportunities for all types of boating and river swimming. The area around the river is home to abundant wildlife and offers natural, historical, cultural, and scenic points of interest.

In addition to plenty of water sports, there are dry-land activities including picnic areas, horseshoes, and a fun clubhouse. Enjoy eating out at Owen's grocery and deli and pick up any food items you may have forgotten. In the winter, try snow skiing and snowmobiling. Year-round there are opportunities for hiking, biking, and water skiing.

Walk into Newport for shopping and dining or join in for an outing on the party boat. With four seasons and plenty of sun, Old American is your destination for everything from soaking up rays to water skiing to winter sports.

RESORT TYPE: Deluxe

LOCATION: Newport, Washington

SEASON: Year-round

WEBSITE: kmresorts.com

If you still need to get your water fix, explore nearby Lake Pend Oreille with a surface area of 148 square miles, which adds more opportunities for water sports. Since the resort is available year-round, snow skiing, sledding, and snowboarding is not so far away at Mount Spokane and Silver Mountain in Idaho. The campground is actually located on the border between Washington and Idaho. So, finding recreation areas in either state is an option.

To see more of the locale, take a ride on the North Pend Oreille Valley Lions Club Excursion Train Ride. From the river flats, the train moves into a forested area on the edge of the Colville National Forest. Riders will be able to experience what it was like 100 years ago rolling through a remote forest when the railroad carried logs to the mills and people from Metaline Falls.

PONDEROSA FALLS RESORT

LOCATION: Cheney, Washington

SEASON: Year-round

WEBSITE: kmresorts.com

TEN MINUTES FROM SPOKANE ON BEAUTIFUL FORESTED GROUNDS

Located just off I-90 in Cheney, Washington, Ponderosa Falls Resort is one of the top campground resorts near Spokane for a reason. Yes, location is part of it. It's easy to unhitch the car and take an excursion into the big city. A gondola skyride above the raging Spokane river is just an exit or two away. And the best shopping on the sunny side of Washington State awaits in downtown Spokane just 10 minutes away.

The sunny side of the state gives you ample weather to take part in all the resort has to offer. The whole family can take advantage of the beautiful indoor pool and spa. Let the kids wear themselves out at the kiddie's lagoon. Meet old and new friends in the workout room, sports court, or while playing sand volleyball.

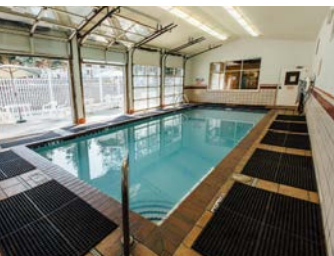

A busy activities team creates and carries out plenty of planned activities for the whole family including mini-golf. Check the website to see a complete list of activities at this four-season resort.

In addition to spacious full hook-up campsites there's 30- to 50-amp electrical and Wi-Fi. If you traveled without your rig, check into one of five bungalows and seven cabins.

Downtown Cheney is the region's gateway to the Columbia Plateau Trail and the Fish Lake Trail, both of which explore the unique geology of the Great Ice Age Floods.

For hiking or biking, check out the Centennial Trail, which is a 31.3-mile point-to-point trail located near Snohomish. It features a lake and is good for all skill levels. The trail offers a number of activity options and is accessible year-round.

Also nearby, visit Riverfront Park, which is a former World's Fair site. Go ziplining at Mica Moon Zip Tours and visit the John A. Finch Arboretum located in southwest Spokane on 65 acres of wooded hills. While in Spokane be sure to see lovely Spokane Falls. Close by in western Idaho you can visit two very scenic lakes, Lake Coeur d'Alene and Lake Pend Oreille.

WASHINGTON TRAVEL INN RESORT

WASHINGTON STATE CAMPING AT ITS BEST

Washington State is known for its gorgeous Pacific Ocean coastline and breathtaking mountains, and Travel Inn Resort offers you the best of both worlds. The resort is strategically located at the gateway to ocean and mountain recreation—30 minutes from coastal beaches.

In addition to the proximity to the ocean, Travel Inn Resort in Elma, Washington, is located within a labyrinth of rivers and streams that have salmon, steelhead, and trout. Surrounding forests are abundant in game birds, deer, and elk.

Onsite, in addition to spacious campsites with 30 and 50 amp electric and cable TV, there are many opportunities to try your hand at a variety of sports. These include horseshoes, basketball, shuffleboard, volleyball, and badminton. Relax at the community fire pit, have an al fresco meal at the picnic area, or lounge at the outdoor swimming pool. Meet old and new friends at the resort's clubhouse and stay in touch with faraway friends with the Wi-Fi.

Nearby you can access other sporting opportunities such as bowling, golf, paintball, hiking, biking, and motorbiking.

A short drive away, visit Capitol State Forest for an adventure horseback ride at Mima Falls, spotting salmon in McLane Creek, mountain biking at Rock Candy, and off-roading at Porter Creek.

At Lake Sylvania, hikers come from all around southwest Washington to cover the year-round, 5-mile loop trail, which rolls gently from the campground, over wetlands and a small covered bridge. A walk around the lake reveals a dam that provided hydro- electric power to the logging camp in the early 1900s. Park trails connect to a network of hiking and biking trails in the surrounding 5,000-acre Montesano City Forest.

In nearby Westport, Washington, find miles and miles of beautiful public access beach. The southern portion of the beach can be driven on. Make sure to bring your camera.

CAMPING DE COMPTON

RESORT TYPE: Deluxe

LOCATION: Compton, Quebec

SEASON: April 24 - October 21

WORK ON YOUR GOLF GAME WHILE STAYING AT THIS BEAUTIFUL RESORT

There are many reasons to head your RV into Camping de Compton, in Compton, Quebec. Just one of them may be the beautiful spacious sites, many of which are pull throughs. Other reasons could include the myriad of amenities and activities.

If you're sports minded, then your appetite will be sated with the numerous sports available. Meet old and new friends playing basketball, volleyball, soccer, and ball hockey. Try your hand at Bocce ball, horseshoes, and shuffleboard. Splash into the water game basin and swim at one or both of the two heated swimming pools. Enjoy the Gym Zen and Giant Baby- Foot. Take a leisurely or a fast jaunt on the walking trail and treat your four-legged friend to the dog park. Your little ones will spend happy hours on the playgrounds.

No need to leave the resort to work on your golf game because Camping de Compton has a nine-hole, par-three golf course. If you've come without any sports equipment, the campground lends equipment free of charge.

Maybe you've planned a big get-together or a family reunion. Camping de Compton is ready for you with a community hall with a fully equipped kitchen that accommodates 240 guests. There's also a clubhouse for adults.

If you choose to go offsite, within walking distance is a supermarket, restaurants, bakery / pastry shop, bistros, and a pub.

Because the Coaticook Valley is so verdant, you're treated to some of the finest fruits, vegetables, and local produce: apples, pears, strawberries, raspberries, maple products, blueberries, grapes, currants, vegetables, medicinal plants, and herbs.

The Coaticook Valley is a magnet to bicyclists, whether mountain or road cycling. For those who prefer road biking, a 66-mile loop is suggested throughout the valley. For cycling with the family, the combined bike-pedestrian 9-mile path will take you through the downtown area and fantastic wooded trails alongside the Coaticook River.

SET IN A BEAUTIFUL FOREST TWO HOURS FROM CALGARY

Wilderness Village at Crimson Lake in Rocky Mountain House, Alberta, is considered the gateway to the west country including the majestic Rocky Mountains. The resort is located on a quarter section of land (160 acres) and has 11 rental cabins and hundreds of large, serviced RV sites, each with a fire pit and picnic table.

You may just want to relax at your spacious RV site, but you can also get involved in many other ways. Take a dip in one of the two swimming pools or three hot tubs. Your children or grandchildren will love the various playgrounds and the petting zoo. Forgot salt? No worries. A seasonal village convenience store is stocked and also has a concession stand. Plus, firewood is complimentary.

Wilderness Village at Crimson Lake is well known for its trail-ride operation. Western and English-style horseback riding lessons are available for adults and children. Sign up for a trail ride for varying lengths of time. An all-day ride includes a steak fry supper. Or if you're feeling energetic, sign up for an overnight pack trip. The resort management is enthusiastic about families and the need for families to participate in recreational activities. They suggest exploring hiking trails that lead to beaver dams or fishing in one of the nearby lakes or streams

The area surrounding Wilderness Village is packed with things to do. Nearby Crimson Lake features 12 miles of graveled trails for hiking, mountain biking and cross-country skiing in the winter. The Amerada Trail encircles the lake. There's boating, water skiing, windsurfing, canoeing, and swimming.

Cow Lake, just minutes southwest of Rocky Mountain House, offers swimming, boating, fishing and a chance to relax at a sandy beach or sit by a crackling fire in a peaceful setting. An extensive walking trail runs north of the lake through an evergreen forest.

EL GOLFO BEACH RESORT

THE SEA OF CORTEZ FORMS THE BACKDROP OF THIS RESORT

RESORT TYPE: Classic

LOCATION: El Golfo, Sonora, Mexico

SEASON: Year-round

WEBSITE: coloradoriveradventures.com

If you're a fan of the sea, sand, and sun, then head your rig across the border from Yuma, Arizona, to El Golfo, Mexico. In addition, if you enjoy boating, fishing, golf, water skiing, hiking, swimming, or just relaxing with friends and family, then El Golfo Beach Resort is the place for you. Just imagine parking your RV on the edge of the Sea of Cortez and enjoying a relaxing or activity-filled vacation.

"It's lovely; it's not touristy," says Lindee Woody, member referral coordinator. "There are darling restaurants and shops nearby and the beach feels like it's a private beach—rarely occupied by locals. You can walk for miles and miles from our resort on untouched beaches, which are great for sand dollar collecting"

The resort is complemented by miles of off-road trails, sand dunes, and deep sea fishing. Rent an ATV and experience the time of your life. Onsite, feast at the poolside cabana and cantina or take a dip in the pool. Feel safe with 24-hour security. There's a clubhouse, family recreation center, and planned activities. Other amenities include a Jacuzzi, game room, and RV storage.

Offsite try your hand at snorkeling or SCUBA diving, which takes you to the gorgeous and active reefs below. Charter a boat and catch the big one while deep sea fishing. The Sea of Cortez has been called "The World's Aquarium" and "The World's Greatest Fish Trap." The sea is abundant with game fish and an extraordinary amount of world record fish have been taken in these waters.
